

GOOD PROGRAM FOR SERVICES

Arrangements For McKinley Memorial Meeting Made at Committee Meeting.

Arrangements are progressing well for the McKinley memorial services to be held at the opera house next Wednesday afternoon at 2:30. The committee of arrangements met in the office of Jason H. Brookes on Saturday afternoon.

An earnest request is made to the manufacturers and business men to close their factories and stores on Wednesday afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock. It is the desire of the committee that business of every character be suspended between the hours named as a mark of respect to the memory of the late president.

Arrangements will be made by Prof. Laughlin and Hatch to have every church choir in the city represented, and a meeting will be held at the Y. M. C. A. hall Tuesday evening at 7 for the purpose of rehearsing the music. The members of the several choirs and all other vocalists are earnestly urged to be present at this meeting. The committee on music consists of Profs. Hatch, Laughlin, Haines and Manley. The musical program will contain McKinley's favorite hymns, "Lead, Kindly Light," and "Nearer, My God, to Thee."

Chief of Police Thos. V. Thompson and S. J. Cripps have been selected to arrange the opera house for the occasion and appropriately decorate the stage.

Mayor W. C. Davidson will preside at the meeting, and the opening prayer will be made by Rev. Dr. Clark Crawford, of the First M. E. church. Addresses will be made by Rev. Father T. M. Smith, W. E. Wells, T. J. Duffy, Rev. J. C. Taggart, Rev. C. G. Jordan and Attorney W. B. Hill.

A collection will be taken up at the conclusion of the ceremonies for the benefit of the memorial fund.

day next to the McKinley memorial services.

The following is the outline of exercises: Birthplace, boyhood, student and teacher, soldier, lawyer, member of congress (when and how long), governor of Ohio (when and how long), president of the United States (when and how long), William McKinley, "The Man," music.

Prof. Rayman desires that the exercises shall be brief, interesting and of such a nature as to leave "lasting and helpful impressions." "Biography," he says, "is the very soul of history, and for this reason the study of the lives of great characters should build up strong manhood."

A BIG POTTERY FOR COLUMBUS

The Bells, of Findlay, Are Likely to Start Work On a Big Plant There Soon.

Option on a Large Tract of Land—Decision on Engineers' Law Will Be Contested—Another Redistricting Bill Unsatisfactory to Columbians.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, January 27.—The plans of the Bell Pottery company, of Findlay, for the erection of a mammoth pottery in this city have assumed definite form. Saturday evening the company secured an option on 31 acres of choice land on the south side of the B. & O. and Panhandle railroad tracks, on the east side of the city. The land is owned by Mrs. Katherine Frye, and the company has offered her $12,500 for it. The option expires February 1. If no hitch occurs in the negotiations work will be started on the plant this spring. The plant is to employ 500 hands. The capital stock is to be $500,000.

The action of the Butler county circuit court in declaring invalid the stationery engineers' law will be contested in the supreme court.

A second re-districting bill is projected. It places Columbiana, Stark and Holmes counties in a district to be called the Seventeenth, and making Ashland, Trumbull and Mahoning the Eighteenth district. This arrangement would probably meet with as much resentment in the Eighteenth district as the one outlined in the Alton bill.

It is announced that Judge Ferdinand Jelke, of Cincinnati, will be a candidate for the Republican nomination for governor. He is an admirer of both Senators Hanna and Foraker.

FUNERAL TODAY

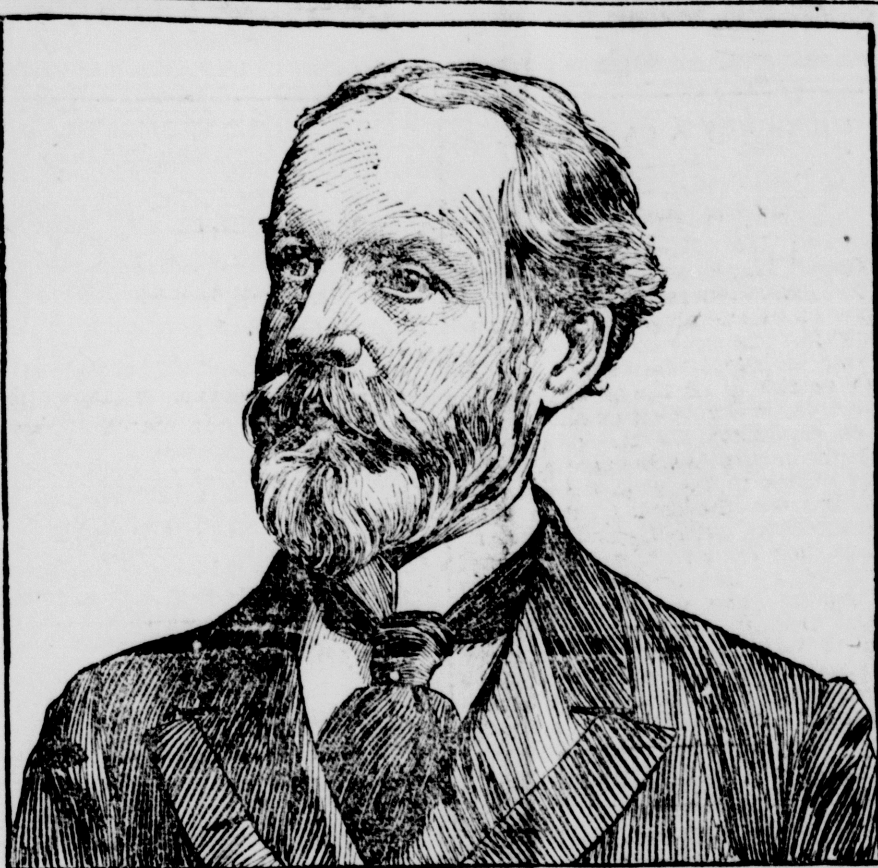

Last Sad Rites in Honor of the Late James N. Vodrey.

The funeral services over the remains of James N. Vodrey were held at 2 o'clock this afternoon from his late home on College street, being conducted by Rev. C. F. Swift, of Beaver Falls, and Rev. W. H. Gladden, of this city. Interment at Riverview cemetery.

GRAND RECORD OF ST. STEPHEN'S

Told In Rev. Edwin Weary's Anniversary Sermon Sunday Morning.

Of Work Accomplished in Four Years. Collections Were $25,359, an Average of $6,340 Per Year—New Members Added Numbered 175.

Reviewing the past and looking into the future was the purpose of the anniversary service held yesterday morning at St. Stephen's Episcopal church. The service marked the fourth year of the rectorship of Rev. Edwin Weary in this city. The attendance was quite large, while the music rendered by the vested choir was pleasing.

While his remarks could not be exactly considered as a sermon, Rev. Mr. Weary gave an interesting resume of the events that have transpired in the church during his charge. Evidence was thus afforded that some wonderful church work had been done during these four years, not only by the rector, but by the congregation as well. The rector said:

"We know of the past, and the future seems a blank. In vain we seek to know Time's holdings. We must read page by page, knowing that He who has been with us in our trials in the past four years is with us today and will be near always in the future."

Gently did the speaker refer to those members of the church who have died during his rectorship. "We pass on with renewed vigor," said the speaker. "We have our daily labors to perform, giving each but little time for rest; but I fear we give too much thought to things secular. You have called upon me to help you and I have done my best, remembering at all times that my work is yours, and your labors mine."

The first year there were raised $1,200; second year, $5,919.31; third year, $9,860.56; fourth year, $10,794.95, and from May last until the present time, $2,445, or a total of $29,359.82 have been raised for church work.

In four years there were 149 persons baptized, 156 confirmations, 50 marriages and 48 deaths; 288 public and 27 private communions. The present expenses of the church annually are $1,964. This makes the expenses of the church about $38 a week.

Valuation of property, 1898—Church lot, $11,000; church, $6,000; rectory, $1,500; parish building, $2,500; total, $21,000. Valuation, 1902—Church lot, $12,000; church, $23,000; rectory, $2,750; parish building, $2,500; total, $40,250; increase in valuation of buildings, $19,250; amount of insurance on property, $19,000.

As the present membership is about 302, it can be readily seen that the church and rector have done some remarkable work during the past four years.

A FIRE STATION FOR NORTH SIDE

The Project Has Now Assumed a Definite and Tangible Shape.

AN OPTION ON A LOT

Has Been Taken And an Effort Will Be Made to Induce Council to Purchase It—Matter to Be Presented to the Solons at Once.

Residents of the North Side, who have long been agitating without any apparent success the proposition for the establishment of a paid fire department in that section, may have their needs in that direction supplied within a very short time.

At any rate an effort is to be made at council tomorrow evening to arrange for the extra station. R. C. Hedderston has always favored the move and it is he who proposes to bring the matter up before council.

It was learned today that a number of interested persons have secured an option on a lot in the North Side which is located in a section easily accessible from all surrounding points. It is the intention of Mr. Hedderston to try to induce council to purchase the lot and erect the proposed new station thereon.

He contends that the expense will be small and argues that the need of the extra fire protection is incalculably great. A reel which is at present at the central station can be used by the new department, it is said, and other surplus equipment taken there. New hose may have to be purchased, but little other material would be needed. In speaking of his proposition which will be submitted to council, Mr. Hedderston said:

"I intend to ask council to appoint a committee to act with the fire committee in making provisions for the new station. The option which has been secured on the North Side lot will hold good for several days. It was obtained with the expectation that council would take measures to establish the extra fire protection and I hope to be able to assist the North Side people in bringing about the relief which is so badly needed."

A FAITHFUL DOG SAVES MASTER

Man Lying Helpless On the Ice When the Animal Attracted a Passerby to Him.

While walking along Second street at a late hour Saturday night, Zach Denning, a well-known young potter, came upon a big dog at the alley between Union and Washington streets, which made a determined and finally successful attempt to stop him. On first seeing the dog Denning was somewhat frightened, as the animal crouched down directly in his path-way and, with a peculiar whine, raised itself to a standing posture and placed its fore paws against Denning's breast.

His curiosity became aroused. The wise and faithful animal started down the alley, eagerly watching to see if the young man followed.

Following closely Denning proceeded to a dark and lonely part of the alley, where he was startled to come upon the apparently lifeless body of a man.

Bending over the prostrate form the rescuer at once recognized one of his friends. Taking hold of one of his shoulders he made an effort to get the man on his feet, when, to his astonishment, the dog seized the other shoulder with its fore paws and made an effort to lend assistance.

Presently the helpless victim uttered a moan and attempted to talk, when, with a great cry of joy the dog threw itself against its master and could scarcely be made to leave him. After raising the man to his feet Denning, with much difficulty, started him to walking, when, after a time, he was able to be taken to his home.

The man had been lying flat on the ice in a spot where he would not possibly have been found before daylight, and had it not been for the timely assistance of his faithful dog he would doubtless have frozen to death. The unfortunate man is a well known potter. Saturday evening he got with a party of friends and had made a round of the barrooms.

"Curley" Brindley had a large "package" aboard when Officers Thompson and Dawson found him Saturday night. He paid $5.60.

James Wesley Thompson, of Chester, was taken in last evening by Patrolmen Woods and Betteridge, charged with intoxication and using profane language. He drew $9.60, which he couldn't pay and is yet in jail.

Altona, Ill., January 27.—Thomas Lawrence, of this town, a young man whose relatives live in East Liverpool and Columbiana county, was shot twice by Thomas McLain a week ago Saturday night.

The shooting took place in the grocery store of Heptonstall & McLain and was the result of a quarrel.

Lawrence was taken to the hospital, where he died the following evening. McLain is in jail.

EXCELLENT MEETINGS

Services at the First M. E. Church on Sunday Were Deeply Interesting.

The Sunday school service was merged into a decision meeting and about 50 of the scholars announced their intention of living a Christian life.

At 11 o'clock Dr. Dunham preached a very able sermon and the congregation was deeply moved. The after service was of unusual interest and much good was accomplished.

Dr. Dunham preached a powerful sermon in the evening from the subject: "Demands of Divine Law." The attendance was very large and toward the end of the meeting the portion of the church near the altar was crowded with persons asking the prayers of the congregation.

The services will be continued during the present week at the usual hours. No meeting will be held on Wednesday on account of the memorial service.

CAUSED SURPRISE IN THE CHURCH

HIS LETTER OF FAREWELL

Read to the Congregation, Caused Many to Weep—He Has Received a Call to Sharon, Pa.—Presbytery to Meet And Act Soon.

With bowed head and many of his congregation before him weeping, Rev. J. R. Greene, for seven years pastor of the Second U. P. church in the East End, tendered his resignation last night, the resignation taking effect at once. Never in the history of the little church was such a scene witnessed as that of last evening.

The fact that the pastor was to present his resignation was not known to more than a dozen members of the church. The average member least thought of this being a part of the evening's program. Shortly after 7 o'clock Rev. Mr. Greene came into the little church, taking a seat in the front pew. Not many were in the room at the time, and it could plainly be seen that he was in deep thought. Soon the lights were turned up, the young people in the rear room were singing their closing hymn and then the service of the evening commenced.

After the usual devotional exercises Rev. Mr. Greene preached a sermon that brought tears to the eyes of many hearers. The text was Joshua 3:8. In part he said:

"We go forward in life until we have reached the limit. We stop at the limit just to review affairs. We come to our end in character building, and what have we done. We all aim to live and copy Christ's examples. What are we going to do about it? Are we to give up the trials just because we do not understand? Some day the veil will be lifted. We cut and hew and get discouraged, but some day we shall be satisfied when we wake up in His likeness. We go so far and leave the rest with God. The thief on the cross had reached the limit. The limit was 'Lord, remember me.'"

"We go no longer together. Go as you have gone heretofore forward in the way our paths lead us. We separate tonight. This is not the time for fault-finding, to blame one another for mistakes if there have been any. I believe you are all friends of mine and believe I have the privilege of entering the homes of any of this congregation. Let us stop as we have started, friends. Now, we have gone the limit."

Taking a paper from his coat pocket, the minister read the following: "To the Members and Adherents of Mrs. J. G. Smith, of Pennsylvania avenue, is able to set up after a severe attack of pneumonia. Mrs. Porter, wife of Dr. Porter, of Cleveland, is visiting her brother, Rev. J. R. Greene, of Pennsylvania avenue.

Local No. 52, street railway employes, met in the East End Saturday evening. Four new members were obligated and one application for membership was received.

Attachment proceedings were issued in the court of Justice Carman, of the East End, against Charles Dyke for $12.10 by Chambers & Co. The case is set for Wednesday evening.

A RELIABLE NEWSPAPER

The Times of Pittsburg is Ably Edited and Gives All the News.

The Pittsburg Times is the only daily newspaper in that city which does not have a Sunday edition. The Times puts all its energies and money into publishing the best newspaper there six days out of the week. Its humane idea is that men and newspapers should have one day's rest in seven. The Times shows the results of this in sending out a vigorous paper. Accuracy and brevity are its watchwords.

Its editorial page is the work of several specialists and is one that commends itself in its discussion of current topics to the children of the public schools, as well as their fathers, mothers, teachers and all who read and think. In politics its policy is Republican, giving all the news of all parties as well. The sporting page is in the hands of an expert. The Times also pays particular attention to church matters, and its church news is at once reliable and general. Its special correspondents everywhere keep its pages day by day a perfect mirror of the world. The woman's page is carefully edited. The Times is a model paper. Six days a week for six cents.

PENNSYLVANIA DEMOCRATS

Will Await Result of February Elections And Then Consider Governorship.

Philadelphia, Jan. 27.—A special dispatch to the Philadelphia Times from Washington says: The Democrats of Pennsylvania will do nothing regarding the coming contest in the state until after the February elections. They will wait until these have been held and see what the result may be. Shortly after these elections a conference will be held in Philadelphia, participated in by the leading Democrats of the state, when a plan of action to be pursued and also the selection of a candidate for governor will undoubtedly be agreed upon.

This last is the most important matter to be decided at the conference. Many names have been mentioned as the Democratic gubernatorial candidate, among them being Representative J. K. P. Hall, of Elk county, ex-Governor Pattison, ex-Attorney General W. U. Hensel and Judge James Gay Gordon, of Philadelphia. The former is willing to enter the race should the Philadelphia conference decide upon his name.

National Committeeman James H. Guffey has been in the city during the past few days. He has consulted leading Democrats from Pennsylvania on the situation in that state. He has also discussed the condition of affairs in the Keystone state with national Democrats, and they have become greatly interested because of the chance for winning next fall.

GERMAN PRESS IRRITATED.

Berlin, Jan. 27.—The German press throughout shows irritation over the alleged British attempts to throw suspicion on the policy entertained towards the United States by Germany before the outbreak of the Spanish-American war. Nearly all the German newspapers regard these alleged attempts in the same light as does the Deutsche Tages Zeitung. Dwelling upon the motives which actuated the interpellation of Mr. Henry Norman in the British house of commons, Jan. 20, that paper says:

"In the London reports cabled to New York it is alleged that Germany was the instigator of a plan to bring about intervention by the European powers against the United States. This is a direct blow in the face of truth. But what of it? It might, perhaps, on the verge of Prince Henry's visit, create ill feelings in the United States, in which case the object underlying Mr. Norman's interpellation and the answer thereto of Lord Cranborne, as well as that of the inventions sent abroad by English news paper agencies, would be fulfilled."

'Tisn't safe to be a day without Dr. Thamas' Electric oil in the house. Never can tell what moment an accident is going to happen.

MILES NOT A CANDIDATE.

Writes Letter Disclaiming Any Presidential Ambition.

Boston, Jan. 27.—In a letter to George F. Washburn, of the Commonwealth club, General Nelson A. Miles disposes of his presidential boom as follows:

"You desire information as to the truth or falsity of the newspaper reports from Washington making me an active candidate for the presidency. I deeply regret these reports. Like many others in the past, they are absolutely unauthorized. They don't emanate from myself or from my friends, and I trust the public will not be misled by them. I have not been and am not now a seeker for presidential honors. My ambition has ever been to faithfully serve my country in whatever sphere duty may have dictated, and this will be my sole purpose in the future."

THANK OFFERING FUND.

Sunday School Children Met in New York—More Money Raised.

New York, Jan. 27.—Children from 65 Sunday schools of this city assembled in Carnegie hall, Sunday, completely filling the great auditorium. The meeting was in the interests of the Twentieth Century Thank Offering fund. Bishop Andrews made an address. Addresses were also made by several Methodist Episcopal clergymen.

Of the $1,000,000 fund which is to be raised, $620,000 has been taken in or pledged. At Sunday's meeting a large sum was raised, the largest subscription, $3,000, coming from Tremont Sunday school, while there was one individual subscription of $1,000.

TOLD IN EAST LIVERPOOL

The Renown of the Great Author and Centered in East Liverpool People.

It's by the words of the people that Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills have come into such active demand. The announcements for this medicine are not dependent on the testimony of people so far away that they cannot be authenticated. It's home evidence that convinces because easily substantiated. It's the simple statement of things done and told in the words of the relieved.

Mr. M. Rushton, of No. 387 West Market street, East Liverpool, Ohio, says: "Before I used Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills I got at Larkins' drug store, corner Sixth and East Market streets, I was bilious, head felt achy and dull. The effect of the medicine was to regulate the liver, clear the head, give a feeling of strength, energy and new life. I think justifies a recommendation."

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are sold at 50 cents a box at dealers, or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine company, Buffalo, N. Y. See that portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., are on every package.

ROBBED AND CREMATED.

Iweency Was Burned While Friends Looked on Helplessly.

Warren, O., Jan. 27.—Michael Sweeney, a target man, employed on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, near Niles, was robbed and then cremated. The murderers are thought to be tramps. Passing trainmen saw the target house blazing and ran to it. When they reached the house they saw Sweeney lying inside, unable to move, apparently stunned, but moaning. They were kept back by the fire and could only stand and see him burned to a crisp.

Insurgents Active on Negroes.

Manila, Jan. 27.—Colonel Charles W. Miner, of the Sixth infantry, reports the conditions on the island of Negros to be unsatisfactory and that 400 bolomen and 40 men armed with rifles, under the command of the fanatical bandit leader, Bapa Ilo, are terrorizing the people.

An Attack of Pneumonia Warded Off.

"Some time ago my daughter caught a severe cold. She complained of pains in her chest and had a bad cough. I gave her Chamberlain's Cough Remedy according to directions and in two days she was well and able to go to school. I have used this remedy in my family for the past seven years and have never known it to fail," says James Prendergast, merchant, Annato Bay, Jamaica, West India Islands. The pains in the chest indicated an approaching attack of pneumonia, which in this instance was undoubtedly warded off by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It counteracts any tendency of a cold toward pneumonia. For sale by Alvin H. Bulger, Druggist.

BACK FROM THE ORIENT

Charles Carman at Home After Three Years' Service in the Army.

Charles Carman has returned from the Philippines and is now visiting his father, Justice Carman, of East End. Mr. Carman served for three years as a member of the Third United States infantry, and received his discharge Jan. 9, as the transport was approaching San Francisco harbor. He left the orient a month in advance, and by so doing the government saved travel pay.

Carman will remain with his father for several months, and perhaps may locate in the East End.

FELL FROM A ROOF

William Cellie, a Carpenter, Got a Bad Fall But Was Uninjured.

William Cellie, a carpenter, on Saturday was employed on a residence being erected on Harker avenue. He was working on the roof of a new building when his feet slipped, causing him to fall to the ground. Luckily he alighted on his feet, receiving but a shaking up. He walked off and few if any of his fellow workmen knew of his mishap.

COLD WAVE BY NIGHT

Such a Prediction Made by the Weather Bureau For This Section.

EXTREMELY COLD IN THE WEST.

Twenty-five degrees below zero was reported at Chicago. Cattle interests suffer in some sections in the West.

Jan. 27.—The weather bureau made the following prediction for today and tomorrow: Ohio—Partly cloudy, with a cold wave tonight. Tomorrow fair; cold in the morning; brisk westerly winds.

Western Pennsylvania and West Virginia—Rain today, probably changing to snow; colder, with a cold wave at night. Tomorrow fair; winds becoming westerly and fresh to brisk.

Omaha, Jan. 27.—Reports received last night indicate that the losses of cattle by Saturday's blizzard in the Omaha section, where the storm was most severe, will be very small. Less favorable reports have come from the northwestern part of the state, and in the extreme western section the losses of cattle are said to be very heavy. So far no loss of life has been reported. A temperature of 25 degrees below zero was reported from Alliance, with a heavy wind intensifying the cold.

Lincoln Car Lines Were Tied Up.

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 27.—Nebraska suffered from below zero weather Sunday. A brisk north wind blew across the state and intensified the disagreeable temperature. The weather was generally clear and the sun shone. None of the railroad lines was entirely blocked, although on many of the branch lines snow plows were found necessary. Trains from the west were from one to six hours late. Reports from the ranges indicated considerable suffering to stock in Lincoln. The street car lines were tied up. It was clear and cold last night, reports from the state indicating a temperature of from 8 to 16 degrees below zero.

Topeka, Kansas, Jan. 27.—Clear, cold and very cold, was the weather condition over the entire state, according to reports received here last night. Cattle in the western ranges were suffering, and much loss is likely to ensue unless the situation shall improve. Very little wind accompanied the cold, and this made the conditions more favorable.

The coldest portion of the state last night was the northern tier of counties. Phillipsburg reported the mercury at reading 10 below, with clear skies and little wind. In the western part of the state the cold was moderating, the mercury being from 8 to 14 degrees above zero. In the eastern portion of the state the weather was very near the zero mark.

The snow which fell Saturday is packed tight, and the wheat will be well protected.

Coldest This Winter In Oklahoma.

Guthrie, Okla., Jan. 27.—The coldest weather of the winter was experienced Sunday, with the thermometer at zero all day, and a brisk north wind covered all Oklahoma. Large cattle interests will suffer greatly, no matter what provision has been made to protect them. The wheat crop will also suffer loss, as not enough snow has accompanied the blizzard to protect the rank growth. In the new country, settlers, and especially those in moving wagons, of which there are hundreds, will suffer. In the Indian territory, principally in the Creek nation, where the full bloods are in destitute circumstances, the conditions are very bad for undergoing the rigors of such weather.

Lacrosse, Wis., Jan. 27.—The heaviest snow of the season fell here Sunday. The thermometer was falling rapidly last night. The mercury last night registered 10 degrees below zero.

Niles, Mich., Jan. 27.—A terrific snow storm set in here at 7 o'clock last night. The temperature fell 20 degrees in three hours.

The Educated Man ...AND... His Characteristics

By NICHOLAS MURRAY BUTLER, President of Columbia University

FIRST among the evidences of an education I name correctness and precision in the use of the mother tongue.

It is no disrespect to the splendid literatures which are embodied in the French and the German tongues and no lack of appreciation of the services of those great peoples to civilization and to culture to point out that of modern languages the ENGLISH IS EASILY THE FIRST AND THE MOST POWERFUL, for "it is the greatest instrument of communication that is now in use among men upon the earth." It is the speech of an aggressive people, among whom individual liberty and personal initiative are highly prized.

The educated man, at home with his mother tongue, knows the wide distinction between correct English on the one hand and pedantic or, as it is sometimes called, "elegant" English on the other. HE IS MORE LIKELY TO GO TO BED THAN TO RETIRE, TO GET UP THAN TO ARISE.

He knows that "if you hear poor English and read poor English you will pretty surely speak poor English and write poor English" and governs himself accordingly.

As a second evidence of an education I name those refined and gentle manners which are the expression of fixed habits of thought and of action. Manners have a moral significance and find their basis in that true and deepest self respect for others. An infallible test of character is to be found in one's manners toward those whom for one reason or another the world may deem his inferiors.

As a third evidence of an education I name the power and habit of reflection; for an unexamined life, as Socrates unceasingly insisted, is not worth living.

The question how, whose answer is science, and the question why, whose answer is philosophy, are the beginnings of reflection. A truly educated man asks both questions continually and as a result is habituated to reflection.

AS A FOURTH EVIDENCE OF AN EDUCATION I NAME THE POWER OF GROWTH. A HUMAN MIND CONTINUING TO GROW AND TO DEVELOP THROUGHOUT A LONG LIFE IS A SPLENDID AND IMPRESSIVE SIGHT.

It was that characteristic of Mr. Gladstone which made his personality so attractive to young and ambitious men.

And as a fifth evidence of an education I name efficiency, the power to do. Today the truly educated man must be in some sense efficient. The habit of making knowledge power is efficiency. Without it education is incomplete.

These five characteristics, then, I offer as evidences of an education—correctness and precision in the use of the mother tongue; refined and gentle manners, which are the expression of fixed habits of thought and action; the power and habit of reflection, the power of growth, and efficiency or the power to do.

of laws allowing Chinamen to enter the Philippine islands, under such restrictions as the United States Philippine commission may enact. The present restrictive law concerning immigration, continues this appeal, is of no benefit to the Filipinos. Chinamen, if admitted, would not enter into competition with local labor and their entry into the islands is imperatively needed, as the tobacco, hemp and sugar lands of the archipelago are only partially cultivated. Without this legislation the country cannot be properly developed. Building in Manila has been badly retarded because of this lack of labor, and for these reasons the American chamber of commerce, composed entirely of American citizens, representing commercial interests, respectfully prays for immediate action in this matter.

BUENCAMINO WANTS

EXPOSITION HELD AT MANILA.

Manila, Jan. 27.—Felipe Buencamino, one of the directors of the Federal party, is endeavoring to inaugurate an exhibition of commerce to be held next December. He relies mainly upon exhibits from the United States, China, Japan, Siam and Borneo. The merchants of Manila are inclined to think that this exhibition should be delayed another year, but, if sufficient support is promised, the United States Philippine commission will be asked to assist in carrying out the idea.

McKinley Memorial Services Held.

Cleveland, Jan. 27.—At many of the churches of Cleveland special McKinley memorial services were held Sunday. In some of the churches where no special services were held, the life of the late president was eulogized by the ministers in preludes to their sermons and in incidental mention. Special collections for the McKinley memorial were also taken in many of the churches.

Residents in the vicinity of Garfield and Damascus are making an effort to get rural free delivery.

Lulu Kiger, the St. Clairsville school girl who eloped with her teacher, C. W. L. Finch, of Florida, has returned to the parental roof.

Toronto is overrun with hoboes and Mayor Miller is considering the plan of putting them to work on a stone pile and also using a ball and chain.

Harry Smith, a justice of the peace at Benwood, committed suicide by shooting himself in the head with a revolver. No cause for the act is known.

A genuine case of smallpox has developed at Smithfield, the victim being William Hargely, who claims to have contracted the disease in Steubenville.

Andrew Stafford, a river pirate, pleaded guilty of burglary at Steubenville and was sentenced to serve two and one-half years in the penitentiary.

Patrons of the postoffice at Copeley, have demanded the removal of Postmaster Randall, because he has the office in his house, and it is alleged, his children play with the letters.

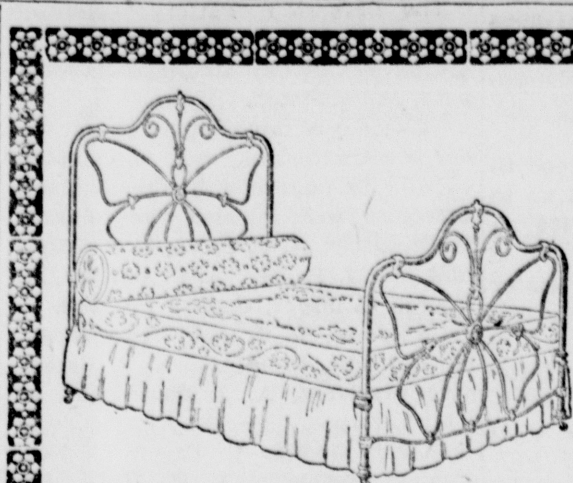

Rebels Fired Shots at Launch.

Panama, Colombia, Jan. 27.—A small gasoline launch belonging to the government and named the General Campo, bearing important dispatches for the Government General Castro, was sighted by the revolutionary fleet near Rio Grande, off the coast of Agua Dulce, southwest of Panama. Two shots were fired at the General Campo from the revolutionary gunboat Padilla, and the former was obliged to return here.

TAFT TOLD TRUTH

Denies Bonsal's Statement That the Government Has Suppressed Facts.

INFORMATION IS SUBSTANTIAL,

Upon Which the Government's Conclusions, as to Affairs in the Philippines Is Based—His Mother-in-Law, Mrs. Herron, Dead.

Chicago, Jan. 27.—William H. Taft, civil governor of the Philippine islands, arrived in Chicago yesterday afternoon from San Francisco. He was met at the depot by President S. M. Felton, of the Chicago and Alton Railroad company, and went at once to Mr. Felton's residence, where he spent the day.

Governor Taft left last night over the Pennsylvania road for Cincinnati. It was his intention to hurry on to Washington tomorrow, but the death of Mrs. Herron, his mother-in-law, at Cincinnati, caused him to alter his plans, and it will be several days before he will reach the capital.

"The only answer I have to make to the ideas of individual observers, who declare that the true condition in the Philippines is being concealed, or that we are hugging delusions of peace that can never be brought about, is that the government is concealing nothing, and that its conclusions are not based on wild theories, but substantial facts."

This was the reply Governor Taft made to a statement published by Stephen Bonsal, declaring that desperate opposition was still being encountered in the field and that the natives are irreconcilable and better organized than before the capture of Aguinaldo.

THE PHILIPPINE TARIFF BILL

Senate Expected to Devote Principal Attention to It This Week.

House Forecast.

Washington, Jan. 27.—The senate will devote its principal attention this week to the Philippine tariff bill. It is the purpose of Senator Lodge, who is in charge of the bill, to keep it before the senate persistently until it is disposed of. He does not count on final action for some time. It is not the present purpose of the friends of the bill to debate it, but the attacks which will be made on it and upon the entire administration of Philippine affairs inevitably will bring replies from many of the Republican senators. It is understood that a majority of the senators on the Democratic side of the chamber will be heard before the bill is passed.

Among those who will speak early are Senators Carmack, Money, Teller, Culberson, Turner, Patterson, Jones, of Arkansas, and Bacon. Senator Lodge will seek the earliest opportunity to have the amendments recommended by his committee formally adopted, but probably will not press these when senators are prepared to proceed with set speeches. Senator Nelson will take advantage of every chance to have the bill creating a department of commerce considered, with the hope of securing action upon it during the week if possible.

WAR REVENUE REDUCTIONS.

Committee Hearings of Interest—No Program For House.

Washington, Jan. 27.—The house leaders have made no program for the work of the present week, as there are no measures of importance pressing for attention, although the anti-oleomargarine bill and the Hill bill for the exchangeability of gold and silver are both on the calendar and may be taken up before long. Thus far no exact time has been fixed for either of these measures, and the lesser bills will take their chances as opportunity presents itself. There promises to be considerable time to spare during the week, as there are no appropriation bills ready to fill the gap when bills of a general nature are lacking. The chief interest of the week centers in the opening of hearings by the ways and means committee on the reduction of war revenue taxes. The committee gives today to this subject, hearing the beer interests in the morning and the tea interests in the afternoon. Tomorrow the committee returns to the subject of Cuban reciprocity, hearing more of the representatives of beet sugar, and also several Cuban planters who have come to the United States to present their view of the case. The urgent need for additional flagmen or safety gates at the railroad
 crossings in this city was emphasized
 on Friday night when a ten-year-old boy in the East End lost his life simply because there was nothing to warn him of his danger. Such accidents are of alarming frequency all through the country. The unprotected railroad crossings cause more fatalities in the course of a year than wrecks, fires or floods, yet the public exhibits a strange indifference to the peril that menaces not only pedestrians but carriages and street cars freighted with human beings. It being almost a practical impossibility to abolish all grade crossings, railroad companies owe it to themselves and the public to see to it that danger spots, especially those on crowded streets, are not left ungarded. What the railroad companies pay out annually in damages and in defending damage suits would go a long way toward making all crossings safe, if it did not completely offset the cost of maintaining gates and watchmen. Additional safety gates in East Liverpool have long been sought by council. It is understood they have now been promised, and the councilmen should persist in their efforts until that promise has been fulfilled.

There is every indication that the efforts of the ministers of this city,
 along with other citizens, to have a grand McKinley memorial meeting in the opera house next Tuesday afternoon will be crowned with success.
 The time is short in which to prepare for it, but a long time is not necessary. All East Liverpool knew and honored William McKinley, and nowhere in the land did his melancholy end cause more genuine sorrow. It would have been a lasting reproach
 to the city, had it ignored the proclamations of the governor and the mayor and allowed McKinley day to pass unobserved. Now that a memorial service has been decided upon,
 no effort should be spared to make
 the exercises worthy of the occasion.
 The main object of the gathering—
 the swelling of the monument fund—should be kept well to the front and contributions should be liberal, according to the ability of the citizens to donate.

Eastport, Me., will soon lose its chief claim to distinction. When the treaty ratifying the purchase of the Danish American islands has been approved, the easternmost extremity
 of the United States will be on the island of Santa Cruz. The western limit of our possessions is now on the island of Balabac in the Philippines.
 These two points are a trifle over 178
 degrees of longitude or about 12,000 miles apart. When the shot was fired that echoed around the globe,
 who of the shooters thought that in
 a little over a century the territory of the then new republic would extend half way around?

 that within 260 years all Americans
 will either be lunatics or idiots demonstrate that there is at least one

The list of Republican candidates
 for county offices is now complete, the primaries will soon be over, and then
 the spring elections. After that the public may have a short rest from political discussion. If a live topic is wanted in East Liverpool and Wells-

 ville, how would it do to take up the question of a public road to connect the two cities? The trail that goes under that name now is dangerous
 and difficult at all seasons and impassable much of the time.

OBITUARY

Roland Harbaugh.

Lisbon, January 27.—(Special)—
 Roland Harbaugh, the last of one of Lisbon's oldest families, died Saturday evening at 8:30. For several days
 he had been in poor health. Saturday afternoon he was stricken with paralysis. He was 77 years old and he is survived by his wife only. His only daughter died some years ago. Mr.
 Harbaugh's father owned a large part of the land on which Lisbon is now located. The funeral will take place tomorrow at 1 p. m. from the house.

Mrs. Sadie Koerber.

Mrs. Sadie Koerber died Saturday morning in Chester after a five weeks' sickness. She was 20 years old and had only resided in Chester six weeks.
 Her remains were shipped to Mc-Keesport, her former home, for burial.

Charles Wright.

Charles Wright, aged 15 years, died at the home of his parents, St. George street, this morning at 10 o'clock. Arrangements for the funeral are not completed.

The Barberton Pottery company held its annual meeting Saturday in the parlors of the American National bank at Barberton.

The plant of the company is now under construction and will be completed and in operation before summer.
 Directors were elected as follows:
 O. C. Barber, H. B. Camp, F. M. Atter-
 holt, A. M. Barber, A. J. Cartwright,
 George C. Pryer, George P. Good, L.
 C. Mills and E. M. Buel. The officers elected are: President, H. B. Camp;
 vice president, A. J. Cartwright, of East Liverpool; secretary and general manager, George B. Pryer, of New Castle; treasurer, L. C. Mills. Mr.
 Cartwright and Mr. Pryer, of New Castle, are experienced men in the clay manufacturing business. It was decided at the meeting to add majolica
 ware to the original products.

O. A. Robertson, who has been employed in the office of the East Liverpool Pottery company since the organization of that concern, has resigned his position, and today left for New Castle, where he will assume the office management of the Shenango
 China company. He was to have gone to New Castle a few weeks ago, but as matters were not just in shape to open the office, his trip there was delayed.

Frederick Lawrence, of the East Liverpool Pottery company, who has been at Altona, Ill., attending the funeral of his brother, returned home Saturday. It is thought a meeting of the board of directors of this company will be held this evening, when officers for the year will be chosen.

H. P. Knoblock and other representatives of the Dresden Pottery company went to Pittsburgh Saturday afternoon, where they closed contracts
 for an immense sale of ware. It is said that about $200,000 worth of business was placed with the Dresden.

W. H. Bevington and Scott Campbell, packers at the Union pottery,
 hats by Vice President Fowler. This was promised them if they succeeded in packing four cars last week. The boys did this in five and one-half days.

Work will be commenced this week making clay at the plant of the Shenango China company at New Castle.
 This plant was to have been started
 some time ago, but the late arrival
 of machinery delayed progress.

Harry Wyllie, of the American Pottery company, of Toronto, was in the city Saturday. Mr. Wyllie states the business of this plant is steadily increasing, and all departments are running full time.

Employees of the Laughlin No. 2 on Saturday afternoon presented the bereaved family of Alonzo Kidder with a handsome broken wreath of fine cut flowers, representing the broken family circle.

Ten kilnmen are now in the biscuit crew at the Buckeye pottery. In the past eight men constituted a crew,
 but owing to a rush of business additional help was secured.

S. E. Dyke, general manager of the East Liverpool Porcelain company's plant in the East End, has left for a short trip through the east in the interests of his firm.

James F. Cochran has taken a position as assistant warehouseman of the Laughlin No. 2. He was formerly with the William Brunt company.

George Smith, secretary of No. 9,
 has taken a position on the glost
 bench at the East Liverpool pottery
 until the Diamond resumes.

B. F. Drakenfield, a buyer from
 New York, who has been in the city
 for several days, has returned home.

Alvin Huff, a kilnman at the Taylor,
 Smith & Taylor pottery, who has been ill with fever, is able to be out.

Ernest Gerog, chief mold maker
 at the Lisbon pottery, has resumed
 work after a prolonged illness.

 Saturday afternoon in the interests of
 the K. T. & K. company.

Bert Boughton, a packer at the Cartwright pottery, will go to Laugh-
 lin's No. 2 this week.

Several jiggers to be used in the new Barberton pottery were ordered in this city last week.

A. J. Smith, salesman for the Edwin
 M. Knowles pottery, has left for his territory.

Only one week more of dissolution

 Robinson were in Pittsburgh Saturday.

Prof. T. M. Cochran, of New Cumberland, was in the city yesterday visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. McNicol, of West Market street, spent Saturday evening at Pittsburgh.

George H. Hunt, general bookkeeper for C. A. Smith, spent Sunday with his family at Pittsburgh.

Miss Lillian McElravy has returned from Carrollton, where she has been visiting relatives for a week.

Misses Grace Knissley and Maude Hughes are in Pittsburgh, where they will visit friends for several weeks.

Max Goldbaum, of Wheeling, who has been visiting at the home of Miss Belle Whit for several days, returned home Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Goodwin, of Broadway, left this morning for Mansfield, where she will visit her former home for several weeks.

Word has been received in town of the serious illness of Rev. Father Patrick Farrell, of Cleveland, well known to many persons in this city.

Isaac W. Knowles, accompanied by Joseph G. Lee, left Saturday afternoon for Los Angeles, Cal., where they will remain during the winter.

Word has been received in this city of the serious illness of Mrs. M. A.
 Hill, mother of W. A. Hill, at the home of her daughter, Dr. and Mrs.
 Cross, at Mt. Jackson.

Mrs. Downing and her daughters, Helen and Dorothy, have left for their sister, Mrs. M. S. Dunlap, of Woodlawn avenue. The ladies' husbands are no relation although having the same name.

The three children of Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Gorrell, of Elm street, Anna, Estella and Creighton, who have been very ill with typhoid fever, are recovering rapidly. It is expected they will be able to be out soon.

M. N. Edgar, a former resident of this city, but who went from here a few years ago and accepted a position with the Beaver Traction company at Beaver Falls, Pa., has returned. He is now a motorman on the East Liverpool line.

ATTACKED WITH CLUBS

John West, employed by the Allison grocery company, was the victim of a holdup Friday evening. He was going home, it is said, and when near the car barn two large men arose and made a vicious attack upon him with clubs. He was felled by the blows, but managed to regain his equilibrium and in a moment's time, with the assistance of a club, drove off his unexpected assailants.

The urgent need for additional flag-
 men or safety gates at the railroad
 crossings in this city was emphasized
 on Friday night when a ten-year-old boy in the East End lost his life simply because there was nothing to warn him of his danger. Such accidents are of alarming frequency all through the country. The unprotected railroad crossings cause more fatalities in the course of a year than wrecks, fires or floods, yet the public
 exhibits a strange indifference to the
 peril that menaces not only pedestrians but carriages and street cars
 freighted with human beings. It being almost a practical impossibility to abolish all grade crossings, railroad companies owe it to themselves and
 the public to see to it that danger
 spots, especially those on crowded streets, are not left unguarded. What the railroad companies pay out annually in damages and in defending
 damage suits would go a long way
 toward making all crossings safe, if it did not completely offset the cost of maintaining gates and watchmen. Additional safety gates in East Liverpool have long been sought by council. It is understood they have now been promised, and the councilmen
 should persist in their efforts until
 that promise has been fulfilled.

There is every indication that the efforts of the ministers of this city,
 along with other citizens, to have a grand McKinley memorial meeting in
 the opera house next Tuesday afternoon will be crowned with success.
 The time is short in which to prepare
 for it, but a long time is not necessary. All East Liverpool knew and honored William McKinley, and nowhere in the land did his melancholy
 end cause more genuine sorrow. It
 would have been a lasting reproach
 to the city, had it ignored the procla-
 mations of the governor and the mayor and allowed McKinley day to pass unobserved. Now that a memorial service has been decided upon,
 no effort should be spared to make
 the exercises worthy of the occasion.
 The main object of the gathering—
 the swelling of the monument fund—
 should be kept well to the front and
 contributions should be liberal, according to the ability of the citizens
 to donate.

Eastport, Me., will soon lose its chief claim to distinction. When the
 treaty ratifying the purchase of the Danish American islands has been approved, the easternmost extremity
 of the United States will be on the island of Santa Cruz. The western limit of our possessions is now on the island of Balabac in the Philippines.
 These two points are a trifle over 178
 degrees of longitude or about 12,000
 miles apart. When the shot was fired that echoed around the globe,
 who of the shooters thought that in
 a little over a century the territory
 of the then new republic would extend half way around?

President Schwab, of the United States Steel corporation, tells the Germans that about the best they can hope to do is to retain their home market. American manufacturers will supply the rest of the world.

The Detroit doctor who predicts
 that within 260 years all Americans
 will either be lunatics or idiots demonstrate that there is at least one prophet who won't have to wait for the expected change.

The list of Republican candidates
 for county offices is now complete, the
 the spring elections. After that the public may have a short rest from

wanted in East Liverpool and Wells-
 ville, how would it do to take up the question of a public road to connect
 the two cities? The trail that goes
 under that name now is dangerous
 and difficult at all seasons and impassable much of the time.

Uncle Sam proposes to be good to his rural mail carriers, as well as to the farmers, and pay them $600 a year. Even at that figure their job is not one to be envied in winter weather.

A deal has just been made in Pittsburg for 8,000 acres of Belmont county coal lands for $1,000,000. The Ohio farmer whose land is underlaid with coal has a little Klondike right at home.

The Prince of Wales is getting a cold reception in Germany. If he wants a taste of genuine hospitality he ought to plan to come here along with his distinguished Teutonic relative.

If Secretary Gage could be in a dozen places at once he could have positions enough to pay him a salary that would cause Charles M. Schwab to turn green with envy.

Kentucky proposes to encourage manufactures by legislation. If she can keep her people so busy that they will have no time to raise Cain she will accomplish wonders.

Senator Billy Mason is unusually active in performing antics and courting notoriety, realizing that his political career is fast nearing its close.

Andrew Carnegie has a chance to give Mexico $4,000,000 worth of libraries. He need not die rich unless he chooses.

The interstate commerce commission asks for more power. It certainly needs it.

Roland Harbaugh.

Lisbon, January 27.—(Special)—
 Roland Harbaugh, the last of one of Lisbon's oldest families, died Saturday evening at 8:30. For several days
 he had been in poor health. Saturday afternoon he was stricken with paralysis. He was 77 years old and he is survived by his wife only. His only
 daughter died some years ago. Mr.
 Harbaugh's father owned a large part of the land on which Lisbon is now
 tomorrow at 1 p. m. from the house.

Mrs. Sadie Koerber.

Mrs. Sadie Koerber died Saturday morning in Chester after a five weeks'
 sickness. She was 20 years old and
 had only resided in Chester six weeks.
 Her remains were shipped to Mc-Keeport, her former home, for burial.

Charles Wright.

Charles Wright, aged 15 years, died
 at the home of his parents, St. George street, this morning at 10 o'clock. Arrangements for the funeral are not completed.

 new members were received into the church and two were baptized.

Services will be held every evening this week. Dr. Swift of Beaver Falls will preside this evening.

The Barborton Pottery company held its annual meeting Saturday in the parlors of the American National bank at Barborton.

The plant of the company is now under construction and will be completed and in operation before summer.
 Directors were elected as follows:
 O. C. Barber, H. B. Camp, F. M. Atter-
 holt, A. M. Barber, A. J. Cartwright,
 George C. Pryer, George P. Good, L.
 C. Mills and E. M. Buel. The officers
 elected are: President, H. B. Camp;
 vice president, A. J. Cartwright, of
 manager, George B. Pryer, of New Castle; treasurer, L. C. Mills. Mr.
 Cartwright and Mr. Pryer, of New Castle, are experienced men in the clay manufacturing business. It was decided at the meeting to add majolica
 ware to the original products.

O. A. Robertson, who has been employed in the office of the East Liverpool Potteries company since the or-
 Castle, where he will assume the office management of the Shenango
 China company. He was to have gone to New Castle a few weeks ago, but
 as matters were not just in shape to open the office, his trip there was delayed.

Frederick Lawrence, of the East Liverpool Potteries company, who has been at Altona, Ill., attending the funeral of his brother, returned home Saturday. It is thought a meeting of
 the board of directors of this com-
 officers for the year will be chosen.

H. P. Knoblock and other representatives of the Dresden Pottery company went to Pittsburgh Saturday afternoon, where they closed contracts
 for an immense sale of ware. It is said that about $200,000 worth of business was placed with the Dresden.

W. H. Bevington and Scott Campbell, packers at the Union pottery,
 hats by Vice President Fowler. This was promised them if they succeeded in packing four cars last week. The
 days.

Work will be commenced this week making clay at the plant of the Shenangos China company at New Castle.
 This plant was to have been started
 some time ago, but the late arrival
 of machinery delayed progress.

Harry Wyllie, of the American Pottery company, of Toronto, was in the city Saturday. Mr. Wyllie states the business of this plant is steadily increasing, and all departments are running full time.

Employees of the Laughlin No. 2 on Saturday afternoon presented the bereaved family of Alonzo Kidder with
 a handsome broken wreath of fine cut flowers, representing the broken family circle.

Ten kilnmen are now in the biscuit crew at the Buckeye pottery. In the
 past eight men constituted a crew,
 but owing to a rush of business additional help was secured.

S. E. Dyke, general manager of the East Liverpool Porcelain company's plant in the East End, has left for a short trip through the east in the interests of his firm.

James F. Cochran has taken a position as assistant warehouseman of
 the Laughlin No. 2. He was formerly
 with the William Brunt company.

George Smith, secretary of No. 9,
 has taken a position on the glost
 bench at the East Liverpool pottery
 until the Diamond resumes.

B. F. Drakenfield, a buyer from
 New York, who has been in the city
 for several days, has returned home.

Alvin Huff, a kilnman at the Taylor,
 Smith & Taylor pottery, who has been ill with fever, is able to be out.

Ernest Geroig, chief mold maker
 at the Lisbon pottery, has resumed
 work after a prolonged illness.

 the K. T. & K. company.

Bert Boughton, a packer at the Cartwright pottery, will go to Laugh-
 lin's No. 2 this week.

Several jiggers to be used in the new Barborton pottery were ordered
 in this city last week.

A. J. Smith, salesman for the Edwin
 M. Knowles pottery, has left for his territory.

Only one week more of dissolution
 sale. Take advantage of it now;
 don't wait. 20-1

Wellsville's Bowlers Make Lisbon's Look Like

SCORING TEAM TRIUMPH

Scoring Team Three Straight
Victims Showed Admirable Luck. But Were Outscored by Good Scores Made.

Fourteen miles through the snow and cold drove the famous bowling aggregation of Lisbon to meet an unexpected and humiliating defeat on Campbell's bowling alleys Saturday evening at the hands of Captain Shingler's team. The visiting players boasted long and loud of their ability and have been quoted as having said "We can beat any team in Columbiana county, especially the Wellsville team."

This challenge had a tendency to excite envy and make the local players exceedingly anxious to give the visitors a chance to prove their audacious championship claims. Hence, the games were arranged for Saturday evening. A large number of enthusiasts witnessed the contest and each player on making a creditable "clean-up" was vigorously applauded.

A series of three games was bowled, the visitors losing all. At no time during the games did they have a show for victory. They were surprisingly easy victims. The lineup, with total scores of individual players in the three games, follows:

Lisbon—Evans, 567; Shaffer, 434; Marquis, 492; Seaton, 404; Bowman, 427.

Wellsville—Shingler, 510; Hall, 466; Aton, 597; Harsha, 485; Karr, 488.

Total number of points scored by Lisbon, 2,294; Wellsville, 2,546. The highest individual score was made by Willet Aton in the third game—226. He was closely followed by Evans, who made 223.

Attorney Charles R. McGregor acted as referee and Harvey Grim as official scorer.

Though crushed down to distasteful defeat, the Lisbon boys made a brave and admirable struggle. They, however, were in company too fact for them and should indulge in much-needed practice with the lesser fry.

DEMAND COMPLIED WITH

Lisbon Amalgamated Men Agree to Pay Assessment to the National Lodge.

George D. Evans, Jr., of Lisbon, the well known deputy organizer of the Amalgamated Association, was in the city Saturday evening and in a conversation with a News Review reporter told of an important meeting held in Lisbon Saturday afternoon, the result of which will be interesting to the many members of the association in Wellsville. Mr. Evans said:

"At the meeting the members of the association agreed to pay the assessment due the national lodge, although for months we refused to do so. Our chief reason for coming to this agreement was for the advancement of the interests of the association. Had we not complied with the demand of the lodge we would have lost our seat in the convention, which meets at Wheeling during the month of April."

Mr. Evans is very popular in Wellsville, having taken a prominent part in the strike last summer.

TWO PLACES RAIDED

Twenty-Two Persons Arrested at Laughlin's And Keenan's Resorts.

Chief Morrissey and his corps of blue coats established a record Saturday night which will be everlastingly remembered by at least 22 men and women.

Lester Laughlin's resort on Coal Street was "pulled" and the proprietor with five women and five male visitors were escorted to police headquarters. Immediately after they were placed behind the bars a raid was made upon Joseph Keenan's place on Second street when the proprietor, five women and four male visitors were found holding high carnival. They were also given rest in the city building. The whole crowd was turned loose, in a few minutes, upon depositing a $10 forfeit with Chief Morrissey for their appearance before Mayor Dennis this evening.

Great Financial Success.

The supper given by the ladies of the church of the Immaculate Conception Friday evening and the social given by them Saturday evening was beyond doubt a great success. The receipts of the affair amounted to over $1,500.

Father Halligan and members of the church are much elated over the pleasing results.

Revival Services.

Rev. Charles E. Clark, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, last evening announced that revival services will be held every evening of the week, to which every one is invited. The services tonight will be especially for the benefit of the young people.

Funeral of Mrs. Wells.

The funeral of Mrs. Ellen Wells, who died Friday night at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. James Butler, from the effects of a paralytic stroke, took place Sunday afternoon. Interment in Spring Hill cemetery.

Roley Resigns.

Andrew Roley resigned his position on the police force Saturday night. His successor has not yet been appointed.

MINOR NEWS OF WELLSVILLE.

The Misses Ruby Mason and Mary McDonald visited in Pittsburgh Saturday.

Attorney Charles R. McGregor returned Saturday evening from a business visit in Pittsburgh.

Miss Stone, Madame Tsilka and Child Were Located Near Yapyak.

Djuma, European Turkey, Jan. 27.—Miss Stone, the captive American missionary, and her companion, Mme. Tsilka, have been located near Yapyak, in the vicinity of the frontier. The American delegates conducting the negotiations for the release of the captives have arrived at Banisko (about 20 miles southeast of Djuma), and, it was expected, would probably pay over the ransom money yesterday.

The infant daughter of Madame Tsilka has been christened Elenika.

Several Sales of Property Made By Farmers in Vicinity of Shippingport.

Michael Kerr, of the firm of Kerr Brothers, East End contractors, returned this morning from Shippingport, Pa., where he visited relatives Sunday. While there Mr. Kerr was advised of several sales of property made by farmers in the vicinity of Shippingport to the Pennsylvania Railroad company. For months the company was after the right of way through the Spear farm, but the owners asked $1,000 for the privilege, or they would sell the entire farm for $1,800.

The deal was perfected last week and deals are now pending for other leases, prominent among which is the right of way through the farm owned by Dr. Christley, of Pittsburgh. In company with officials of the railroad, Dr. Christley visited his farm near Shippingport a few days ago, and it is understood the company will secure the right of way through this farm.

Surveyors are still at work along this part of the river, and the building of the extension of the New Cumberland branch is almost assured.

WORK AT THE MILL

Bad Weather Last Week Delayed the Roofing of the Finishing Department.

Had it not been for the inclement weather during the past week the finishing department of the mill would have been under cover. The tanners have been laid off and in consequence only a small portion of this department is roofed.

The elevated track has been completed and as a result the furnaces are being well supplied with fuel. A gang of men is busily engaged in driving piles at the edge of the river as a support to the plant which, were the piles not driven, would be in constant danger of sliding into the river.

Royal Arcanum Growing.

At a meeting of the Royal Arcanum held recently three applications for membership were received, and two candidates were voted upon who will be initiated at the next meeting of the lodge to be held on the evening of Feb. 13. At the last session two officers were installed who were not present at the meeting two weeks ago.

Christian Church Revival.

The revival services at the Christian church, which were started last Sunday evening, will continue throughout the week, under the leadership of Rev. J. W. Gorrell. Each service has been the cause of good work being done and a number of conversions have been reported.

the Second United Presbyterian Church, East Liverpool:

"Dear Friends—After much prayer and deliberation I come to you with the following paper:

"Seven years ago we began to gether our work. God has spared us as pastor and people for a long time and has blessed our work. During that time almost 240 more names have been added to our roll, about 175 of these by profession of their faith and 40 by baptism. In that time some 20 new homes have been established by our young people, while we have followed almost 70 of our members and acquaintances to their last resting place. You have brought of your children 75 to the altar to present them to the Lord. You have given in that time about $17,000 for the advancement of His cause and kingdom in the world.

"We have had regular preaching services each ay for these seven years, with but two or three exceptions, besides one week of preparatory services each quarter, to all of which you have been prompt in attending. At the expiration of this bible number of yours, which stands for completeness, surely your Master looking down upon your work will add His commendation of "Well done." During this time we have become more and more united, until as a family, our joys and interests are largely the same.

"So much for the past. The seven years of my oversight as supply, pastor-elect and pastor, end with today. So also, my work here ends with today. God, I believe, calls me to a new field of labor, telling me that by complying with His call it will be better for you and better for me. In obedience then to His call—for no other reason—presbytery at my request will convene at the First U. P. church, East Liverpool on Tuesday, January 28, at 1 p. m. to consider my resignation as pastor of this church to take effect at once, Dr. Taggart to declare the pulpit vacant next Sabbath forenoon.

"I ask you as my friends to unite with presbytery in granting this request. For the purpose of securing a definite statement from you, I ask that you meet in the church at 7:30 tomorrow evening and that your clerk keep a written record of the meeting that the commissioner, chosen by the congregation to represent you at the presbytery may hand a copy of the same to that clerk.

"J. R. GREENE."

After the paper was read Mr. Greene requested the singing of psalm 23. Some delay in this was occasioned on account of members of the session objecting to the manner in which the resignation was presented. While it is not the desire of the session or the congregation to conflict in any manner with the arrangements made by their pastor, it was thought best to follow the rules of church government. Frank D. White, a member of the session, addressed the congregation to this effect, and while so doing the pastor sat with bowed head. Mr. White asked that the session call a meeting for Wednesday evening one week to consider the resignation. Members of the session present conformed to this, and a call was issued. There will be no meeting of presbytery until after the congregational meeting, as it is also the desire of the session to pay Mr. Greene in full before he severs his connection with the church.

About two months ago a call was received by Rev. Mr. Greene from the congregation of the U. P. church, at Sharon. Some members of the church and also of the presbytery were consulted, and after much thought on the part of the minister, the Sharon call was accepted. The salary attached to the Second U. P. church is $1,000 a year, and it is understood Sharon pays more.

SILENT DISRESPECT WAS SHOWN

Hostility to Prince of Wales Evident in Attitude of the Populace of Berlin.

Berlin, Jan. 27.—Sunday passed without any disrespect being shown to the Prince of Wales, who arrived here Saturday evening to represent King Edward at the celebration of the anniversary of the birth of Emperor William next Monday. German crowds have a too deeply abiding respect for royal personages and are too thoroughly policed to ever jeer them. But in a city where the lifting of one's hat is as universal as ordinary civility it was singular to see the passing crowds with never a hat raised and to hear no murmur of applause.

The last experience abroad of the Prince of Wales was his departure amid thunderous cheers, from the shores of Newfoundland, while the streets through which the prince was obliged to be driven Sunday on his way to visit the British ambassador were without one single British flag. While receiving the most elaborate attentions from the family of Emperor William and from German officials, the Prince of Wales must feel the chilling attitude of the German public. Almost all the newspapers refrain from editorial comment on his visit.

A POSTMASTER ASSAULTED.

Knocked Down and Badly Beaten in Uniontown, Pa.

Uniontown, Pa., Jan. 27.—A cowardly assault was made on Postmaster Clarence H. Beall, Saturday evening.

William P. Bailey, Jacob Grim, Hudson Huhn and two other men, all from Oliver, were standing in front of the postoffice as the postmaster drove up. As he jumped from his buggy they jumped on him. Beall was knocked down. The crowd then began jumping on him and kicking him in the face. Bystanders rushed to Beall's assistance. The services of a physician were necessary to sew up bad cuts on Beall's head and one big gash across the face.

The trouble dates back to last November's election, when the Republican leaders at the Oliver coke works were accused of selling out their party, their alleged treachery electing S. E. Frock, Democrat, sheriff. Beall was prominent in hunting the men down and was instrumental in having them discharged. F. P. Bailey was yardmaster at the Oliver coke works, Jacob Grim occupied a position with the same company, and the others were also employed at Oliver and lost their positions.

Bailey, Huhn and Grim were arrested and let forfeits, but the other two were not caught.

It was Kendall's turn to the floor, and he did it.

"There are a thousand chances to one," continued Elmendorf, "that if the story she tells you is true she can't prove it. Suppose she was in a store. Who's going to remember her or the time of day? Take her motive, take her admissions to you if they were made in court, combine them with Blair's evidence, and what do you suppose the result would be?"

"You cannot have seen her with Miss Miller," said Kendall, "and still suspect her of this crime."

Elmendorf hesitated, as if he could hardly bring himself to destroy the last refuge.

"There's one way to look at that," he said at last. "Miss MacLane goes to that house wild with rage after her scene with Alden. She has the 'fixed idea' that's more in crime than even you doctors think it is. She gets in without seeing anybody because of the defective catch of the lock. She walks into that room. Miss Miller is on the balcony. Right on the table, where the devil must have put it, is that knife, open perhaps, for the envelope that held that note was cut. Miss MacLane takes that knife, and on the instant Miss Miller comes in through the window, the other girl shrinking back toward the closet. She is behind Miss Miller. She doesn't see her. You know how it would be with the girl entering from the balcony, the bright light behind her. My friend, it's all over in a second, and Brenda MacLane doesn't know what she's done until she comes to this hospital and sees in that bed a creature as different from the woman she supposed she had struck down as God could make."

Kendall's forehead was dripping wet. "But the money?" he gasped.

"Who knows anything about the money?" demanded Elmendorf. "It may have lain out of sight until Neale and his men got there, and one of them may have lifted it. This is not for publication, Dr. Kendall. It's between ourselves."

"It's a nightmare," said Kendall. "I don't believe a word of it."

"If you don't like the way I've put it, let me give you another view," replied the detective. "Miss MacLane goes to the house—heaven knows why, perhaps from curiosity. She goes up the steps and sees through the glass panel of the outer door Alden in the hall. With the door of Miss Miller's room open this would be possible. I've tried it. Seeing Alden, Miss MacLane hurries away. She doesn't know what Alden has just done, but she doesn't want to meet him. Dr. Blair sees her, but does not see Alden, who comes out afterward. This would be natural, for of course Blair's back was turned after

The doors below were suddenly flung open, and a man appeared.

He passed the house. Let me tell you that Miss MacLane, when she was questioned, spoke of the chance that the mysterious woman had merely gone up the steps and then come right down again."

"I'd rather take that view of it," said Kendall. "But, even so, you must have a motive."

"Motive!" echoed Elmendorf. "What did Miss MacLane tell you? Didn't she

ELECTRICITY IS THE BASIS OF LIFE

By Professor JACQUES LOEB, the Eminent Physiologist of Chicago University

ELECTRICAL charges in the atoms of the bodily tissue are responsible for all the active phenomena of life. In other words, electricity is the basis of life.

A part of the chemical energy of foodstuffs is transformed into electric energy, which gives energy to the body. In one of my experiments I put a jellyfish in contact with a solution of electrically charged substances, and the jellyfish immediately responded by muscular contraction. I then placed the jellyfish in a substance which was a nonconductor of electricity, and there was no response.

In this way I arrived at the conclusion that it was the electric charges which effected the muscular action. I found that a pure salt always acts as a poison to the egg. In order not to have toxic effects it is necessary that the positive and negative charges should easily balance. Whether a salt stimulates or not depends on whether a sodium overbalances. A muscle is stimulated by electro negatively charged particles and prevented from contracting by electro positively charged particles. I have experimented with eggs of different low forms of animal life, with single protoplasmic cells and with muscles.

My results hold true for nerves. My experiments were directed to determine whether electrolytes work in the same way in regard to the life processes of division of cells, muscular contraction and nerve impulses.

I took the eggs of the fundulus and found that these eggs after they have been fertilized will develop in sea water. In a sodium chloride solution I found that they will not develop, but by adding a trace of calcium as many eggs will develop as in the sea water. THIS IS DUE TO THE ELECTRICALLY CHARGED ATOMS OF THE CALCIUM.

Artificial parthenogenesis has been of interest to me only as it led me to learn how the electric charges of ions affect life phenomena. You can bring about parthenogenesis only by positive ions. The power of salt to produce contraction increases with the valency of the ions.

I have come to two conclusions from my study. In the first place, RHYTHMICAL CONTRACTION OCCURS ONLY IN THE PRESENCE OF ELECTRICALLY CHARGED SUBSTANCES. In the second place, the efficiency of the charges depends upon the number of the charges or the different ions. Professor Mathews has arrived at a third conclusion. This is that the negatively charged ions are those which stimulate and the positively charged ions are those which hinder contraction.

He was making an effort to express himself when Elmendorf interrupted him.

"Dr. Kendall is worried," he said, "because he has permitted me to play a trick upon you. To tell the truth, I don't like it any better than he does, and here is where it ends. I am not a doctor. I am a detective sergeant from headquarters. You saw me at the Thirty-eighth street house this afternoon. My name is Elmendorf."

Brenda exhibited surprise, but no resentment, merely saying that the detective's presence was doubtless necessary for reasons unknown to her.

"I am as anxious as any one can be," she said, "to have justice done in this deplorable affair. Do you think you can find out who committed this crime, Mr. Elmendorf? Do you suspect any one?"

"I haven't got any authority to find out anything or suspect anybody," replied Elmendorf, in a tone which indicated that this familiar situation was not agreeable in the present instance. "I go where I am sent and then I make a report. What becomes of the information afterward is a matter with which the sultan of Sulu has more to do than I have. But I'll tell you what I think," he added earnestly. "If this poor girl gets well, that will be the best you'll hear about the case. If she dies, it will all have to come out."

"But you don't think she will die?" cried Brenda, paling.

"I hope not," replied Elmendorf, "and of course my opinion in that matter is worth even less than it is in the other. But we mustn't take her recovery for granted at this stage of the game. Am I right, Dr. Kendall?"

"There can be no certainty yet," replied the doctor gravely.

"Her condition might change for the worse quite suddenly. Isn't that so?" continued Elmendorf. "And if it did she might become unconscious and remain so to the end. That's the fact, and we must face it. This may be murder, and the safe way is to get at the truth now while we can."

"I won't have her questioned any more tonight," said Kendall, with decision. "I've blocked off a coroner already who was here for an ante-mortem statement, and I am prepared for the next comer. Miss Miller shall not be hurried into her grave, and if any attempt of the kind is made I will show a few points of law that will surprise some of our hit and miss officials in this town. A physician's authority beside his patient can be put into practical form if the individual understands the subject. And I do."

"Your advice goes, with me," Elmendorf hastened to say; "but I don't think the particular question I had in mind could do any harm."

"You may state it," said Kendall.

Moffat's Life Pills

The Great Stomach and Liver Medicine.

Established by one of our most Eminent Physicians of New York City and now used in the United States and all foreign countries with more pleasing results than any other medicine ever compounded.

There is hardly a family among civilized nations who have not personal evidence of their beneficial effects. Their great success is owing to their uniform reliability in cases of Constipation, Bilious and Stomachic diseases, whether of long or short duration. They are entirely vegetable in their composition, and harmless to the gentlest infant. One ingredient opens the pores of the skin; another is diuretic, and stimulates proper action of the kidneys; a third is emollient, loosening phlegm and humor from the lungs; other properties are warming and cathartic, and cleanse the stomach and bowels from unhealthy secretions. Their combined effect is, to regulate the impaired functions of the system, and to produce health.

If you feel sick, bad taste in the mouth, coated tongue, dizziness, bilious or sick headache, your stomach and liver are out of order, correct these at once by using Moffat's Life Pills.

They are a positive cure for Malaria, Biliousness, Torpid Liver, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Costiveness, Colds, La Grippe, Aching Limbs, Rheumatism, Impure Blood, Chills and Fever and all other diseases arising from a disordered condition of the stomach and liver.

These pills act on the stomach, bowels, liver and kidneys, purify and regulate the whole system, and are guaranteed to cure and give satisfaction or money refunded.

Ask your Druggist for Moffat's Life Pills and take no other. If he has not got them or will not get them for you, they will be sent by mail on receipt of 25 Cents a Box or 5 boxes for $1.00. Sold by all first class Druggists. Plain or sugar coated.

HOME STUDY COURSE

Self Education Under the Supervision of Prominent Educators.

E. Benjamin Andrews, LL. D., Editor.

LATE TALKS

BY PH. D., and Child Study Normal School.

VII.—Nascent Periods and Periods of Strain.

THAT children are simply adults in miniature, lacking their experience, strength and knowledge, is an assumption that is much too common both in the home and in the school. The truth is that children do not have the collective characteristics of adults proportionately. They have an assemblage of qualities of their own. They breathe, differently, using different muscles; the heart is faster and more easily stimulated; the composition of the body changes from a period below birth, when it contains 97 per cent of water, to adult age, when it contains only 58 per cent; the liver has twice the proportionate size in the child as compared with the adult and has different functions to perform; the brain of the newborn is six times larger in proportion to its body than is that of the adult; the muscles are about half the relative size as found in the adult, but are proportionately larger than the tendons, thus accounting for the greater suppleness of the child; the heart does not increase proportionately with the body, but has its own periods of growth, and so on with the most of the other organs.

Careful measurements of children, which have been made for numbers of years, indicate that the height and weight do not increase regularly, but have certain periods during which the energy of the system is manifested in these directions. The earlier nascent period for accelerated growth in girls is without doubt connected with the earlier approach of puberty on their part. Nature prepares them more quickly for maturity. From the other side this means that boys remain children longer, but are just for this reason larger and better developed physically when once their growth is completed.

A good many facts seem to show that when the favorable period for growth passes without the regular increase it is never regained. If a boy does not grow as he should between 14 and 16, he will never make up for it later on. Boys that have run on the streets and been improperly fed, as with most boys who afterward enter reform schools, although they gain more easily in weight, do not pick up the height which they have lost. Any unusual nervous strain during these periods tends to arrest the rate of growth. Fatigue and worry in school thus interfere with physical development.

Not only do the larger features expressed in height obey the law of nascent periods, but the same is true for the smaller portions of the body. The bones of the skull and face and those of the hands are most conspicuous and significant in this respect. The period of the second dentition is the most important time for the development of the jaw and other face bones and also for later refinements in the modeling of the skull. When growth is arrested in this nascent period, defects of development occur which leave the face permanently stigmatized.

This may take very different forms. All the bones may be smaller than normal, but not disproportionate when compared with each other, or they may all be too large and normal. One side of the face may be larger or smaller or set higher or lower than the other. There may be special defects in special bones. The palate may be too high or too narrow, occasioning an irregularity of the placing of the upper teeth. The upper jaw may be sunken, sometimes causing the lower jaw, which may be of normal size, to protrude, often to such an extent that the teeth do not meet, thus causing difficulty in chewing and in the articulation of words. The lower jaw may be protruding to such an extent as to produce the same results. The cheek bones may be too large, the orbits too wide, the bones of the nose too narrow, thus interfering with breathing and leading to lung disease and catarrh. The forehead may be too bulging and high, arrested in the condition found in babyhood, or it may be too low or narrow. The skull may vary in shape depending upon the growth of the component bones and the dates of their permanent joinings, without as far as this is concerned, having any reference to the real shape or structure of the brain which is beneath it.

Both these latter defects, however, as well as the others, do depend upon the health and vitality of the nervous system, of which the brain is the most important organ. Besides "getting educated," the brain controls very largely the nutritive functions of the body. Irregularity and disorder in the periods of growth are dependent to a great extent upon the brain, and physical defects are signs of nervous action which has been incomplete and imperfect, at least during the time when the organ in question was at its critical period of development. The features of the face as well as other portions of the body thus present a history of the times at which the individual has been subjected to strains too great to be overcome by his innate powers of resistance. A great number of such defects lead to the presumption that the individual is also at the present moment less capable of resisting strain, although this may not be in every case correct. It also leads to the presumption that other organs which are not immediately able to be observed—the brain, for example—have more likely suffered in development in such an instance than when very few or no defects of development are apparent. This, however, is only a probability, and there are doubtless individuals presenting numerous physical deficiencies in whom the upper centers of the brain at least remain in themselves unscathed. The lack of balance must nevertheless always have some depreciating effect.

Nascent periods referring to more purely mental events are not wanting even in the lower animals. Spaulding shows that if young chickens, when they clip the shell, are hooded for a couple of weeks, at the end of that time they will have lost the ability to follow the mother as normal chickens time they never learn to use her as a guide and protector, and they consequently wander away and are lost. He also shows that during this period, if chickens are in the presence of any moving animal, they learn to follow it. He had some broods following after various animals; others after himself. In the first case we have an instance of complete atrophy of a function necessary to the normal life of the animal and in the second an instinct which has been perverted or turned from its natural channel. By the lack of proper opportunities for education the chicken has been either wholly or partially debilitated.

In human beings mental nascent periods, although in most cases allowing a wider margin or time of grace, are equally positive in their appearance. The striking point for our present purposes is that there is a well marked nascent period for those intellectual, emotional and ethical susceptibilities which are called into play during religious awakening. Judged by the healthy average of the race, it would not be normal to expect religious feeling of any intensity before the age of 8 or 9, or perhaps even later, while if an individual has passed the age of 22 or 23 without experiencing a religious awakening there is less likelihood that he will ever have such. The doctrines of most churches that there comes a time when the Holy Spirit does not return and the practice of stimulating religious feeling at about the age of puberty by expecting confirmation is thus borne out by the investigations of modern child study. From the scientific standpoint it would seem that even a true child believer, if he wished his child to obtain the normal experiences of the race and the advantages of a complete education, would desire his child to pass through this experience, among others, even if at a later stage it might give up its energy to another order of development.

Favorable periods are also to be observed in more abstract operations of the mind. The following experiment was carried out by the present writer on 1,350 children in two Chicago schools: A tally register similar to but smaller than that which is used on street cars for ringing up fares was handed to each child, taken by himself. He soon discovered that "it counted." He was then asked to see how large a number of clicks he could run up in a minute. That this was the object of the experiment was spread throughout the school by the children themselves. The register was always set at some number between 200 and 300. This number was written down in sight of the child on a piece of paper. After working for a minute time was called, the slip of paper and a pencil were pushed over to him, and he was asked pleasantly how many clicks he had made.

The drop in the fifth and sixth grades occurred in both schools tested, although it was less in one school than the other. For the rest, the children went through all the different simple operations. They multiplied, divided and added. Except in the first and second grades, where it was a matter of the size of the figures, the difficulty was intellectual. They could all have subtracted if they had been told to do so. The explanation that in the fourth

It may be noted that nothing was ultimately lost by the drop in the fifth and sixth grades. When the seventh and eighth are reached, the ability is greater than ever. It seems quite probable, however, that this ability is not very closely connected with anything they have done in school.

The number of children tested (1,350) is perhaps not enough to make certain of the extent of the arrest, but in as far as it is certain we have revealed a nascent period in the fourth grade for operations of this kind. MRS. RICHARDSON FREED.

Kissed by Brother-in-Law When Acquitted of Killing Husband.

Plattsburg, Mo., Jan. 27.—Mrs. Adie Richardson was Saturday acquitted of the charge of murdering her husband, Frank W. Richardson, a wealthy merchant, who was shot and killed Christmas eve, 1900, as he was entering his home in Savannah, Mo. The announcement of the verdict was received with frantic enthusiasm and joy, not only by Mrs. Richardson and her own and her husband's relatives, but by all the spectators. John D. Richardson, brother of the dead man, seized the widow around the waist and raised her clear off her chair. Holding her in his arms, he kissed her again and again, while the crowd cheered.

After she was released by her brother-in-law, her venerable father, Adam Lawrence, seized her in his arms and their tears of joy mingled as they embraced each other. All of the relatives and the attorneys for the defense gathered around the father and daughter and with tears of joy embraced or congratulated the latter, and the little Richardson boys were kissed by scores of people.

"The defendant is dismissed," shouted Judge Barnes.

"Thank God! Thank God!" was shouted in all parts of the room.

Mrs. Richardson pressed forward and shook hands with and thanked each member of the jury.

Consul General Hanna Trying to Induce Carnegie to Donate $4,000,000.

Monterey, Mexico, Jan. 27.—If the efforts now making by United States Consul General Philip C. Hanna are successful, $4,000,000 of Andrew Carnegie's wealth will be used in the establishment of libraries in Mexico. Of this amount one-fourth is planned to be used in the establishment of a magnificent library in Monterey. The plan contemplates the expenditure of the remaining three millions in the establishment of libraries at Chihuahua, Durango, Tampico, Torreon and San Luis Potosi.

General Hanna has taken up the matter with Mr. Carnegie direct and feels confident of success. He says he expects Mr. Carnegie to be particularly interested in the founding of a library in this city, because of the establishment here of the $10,000,000 steel plant and the consequent importing of skilled workmen from the states. General Hanna expects to hear something in connection with the Carnegie move within the next few days.

HOME STUDY COURSE

Self Education Under the Supervision of Prominent Educators.

E. Benjamin Andrews, LL. D., Editor.

LATE TAN O IMPOR-ASES ILD OY.

OTT, PH. D., and Child Study Normal School.

VII.—Nascent Periods and Periods of Strain.

THAT children are simply adults in miniature, lacking their experience, strength and knowledge, is an assumption that is much too common both in the home and in the school. The truth is that children do not have the collective characteristics of adults proportionately. They have an assemblage of qualities of their own. They breathe differently, using different muscles; the heart is faster and more easily stimulated; the composition of the body changes from a period below birth, when it contains 97 per cent of water, to adult age, when it contains only 58 per cent; the liver has twice the proportionate size in the child as compared with the adult and has different functions to perform; the brain of the newborn is six times larger in proportion to its body than is that of the adult; the muscles are about half the relative size as found in the adult, but are proportionately larger than the tendons, thus accounting for the greater suppleness of the child; the heart does not increase proportionately with the body, but has its own periods of growth, and so on with the most of the other organs.

Careful measurements of children, which have been made for numbers of years, indicate that the height and weight do not increase regularly, but have certain periods during which the energy of the system is manifested in these directions. The earlier nascent period for accelerated growth in girls is without doubt connected with the earlier approach of puberty on their part. Nature prepares them more quickly for maturity. From the other side this means that boys remain children longer, but are just for this reason larger and better developed physically when once their growth is completed.

A good many facts seem to show that when the favorable period for growth passes without the regular increase it is never regained. If a boy does not grow as he should between 14 and 16, he will never make up for it later on. Boys that have run on the streets and been improperly fed, as with most boys who afterward enter reform schools, although they gain more easily in weight, do not pick up the height which they have lost. Any unusual nervous strain during these periods tends to arrest the rate of growth. Fatigue and worry in school thus interfere with physical development.

Not only do the larger features expressed in height obey the law of nascent periods, but the same is true for the smaller portions of the body. The bones of the skull and face and those of the hands are most conspicuous and significant in this respect. The period of the second dentition is the most important time for the development of the jaw and other face bones and also for later refinements in the modeling of the skull. When growth is arrested in this nascent period, defects of development occur which leave the face permanently stigmatized.

This may take very different forms. All the bones may be smaller than normal, but not disproportionate when compared with each other, or they may all be too large and normal. One side of the face may be larger or smaller or set higher or lower than the other. There may be special defects in special bones. The palate may be too high or too narrow, occasioning an irregularity of the placing of the upper teeth. The upper jaw may be sunken, sometimes causing the lower jaw, which may be of normal size, to protrude, often to such an extent that the teeth do not meet, thus causing difficulty in chewing and in the articulation of words. The lower jaw may be retreating to such an extent as to produce the same results. The cheek bones may be too large, the orbits too wide, the bones of the nose too narrow, thus interfering with breathing and leading to lung disease and catarrh. The forehead may be too bulging and high, arrested in the condition found in babyhood, or it may be too low or narrow. The skull may vary in shape depending upon the growth of the component bones and the dates of their permanent joinings, without, as far as this is concerned, having any reference to the real shape or structure of the brain which is beneath it.

Both these latter defects, however, as well as the others, do depend upon the health and vitality of the nervous system, of which the brain is the most important organ. Besides "getting educated," the brain controls very largely the nutritive functions of the body. Irregularity and disorder in the periods of growth are dependent to a great extent upon the brain, and physical defects are signs of nervous action which has been incomplete and imperfect, at least during the time when the organ in question was at its critical period of development. The features of the face as well as other portions of the body thus present a history of the times at which the individual has been subjected to strains too great to be overcome by his innate powers of resistance. A great number of such defects lead to the presumption that the individual is also at the present moment less capable of resisting strain, although this may not be in every case correct. It also leads to the presumption that other organs which are not immediately able to be observed—the brain, for example—have more likely suffered in development in such an instance than when very few or no defects of development are apparent. This, however, is only a probability, and there are doubtless individuals presenting numerous physical deficiencies in whom the upper centers of the brain at least remain in themselves unaffected. The lack of balance must nevertheless always have some depreciating effect.

Nascent periods referring to more purely mental events are not wanting even in the lower animals. Spaulding shows that if young chickens, when they clip the shell, are hooded for a couple of weeks, at the end of that time they will have lost the ability to follow the mother as normal chickens do. They never learn to use her as a guide and protector, and they consequently wander away and are lost. He also shows that during this period, if chickens are in the presence of any moving animal, they learn to follow it. In the first case we have an instance of complete atrophy of a function necessary to the normal life of the animal and in the second an instinct which has been perverted or turned from its natural channel. By the lack of proper opportunities for education the chicken has been either wholly or partially disoriented.

In human beings mental nascent periods, although in most cases allowing a wider margin or time of grace, are equally positive in their appearance. The striking point for our present purposes is that there is a well marked nascent period for those intellectual, emotional and ethical susceptibilities which are called into play during religious awakening. Judged by the healthy average of the race, it would not be normal to expect religious feeling of any intensity before the age of 8 or 9, or perhaps even later, while if an individual has passed the age of 22 or 23 without experiencing a religious awakening there is less likelihood that he will ever have such. The doctrines of most churches that there comes a time when the Holy Spirit does not return and the practice of stimulating religious feeling at about the age of puberty by expecting confirmation is thus borne out by the investigations of modern child study. From the scientific standpoint it would seem that even a total unbeliever, if he wished his child to obtain the normal experiences of the race and the advantages of a complete education, would desire his child to pass through this experience, among others, even if at a later stage it might give up its energy to another order of development.

Favorable periods are also to be observed in more abstract operations of the mind. The following experiment was carried out by the present writer on 1,350 children in two Chicago schools: A tally register similar to but smaller than that which is used on street cars for ringing up fares was handed to each child, taken by himself. London, Jan. 27.—A report sent by Lord Kitchener from Johannesburg tells of the important capture of General B. Viljoen, in the neighborhood of Lydenburg, Transvaal colony, as well as the captures of small parties of Boers elsewhere.

Pretoria, Jan. 27.—Colonel Wilson captured 20 Boers near Frankfort, in Orange River colony, last Saturday. He was preparing at dawn the next day to move away with his captives, when a superior force of Boers made a desperate effort to recapture the prisoners. A hot fight ensued, in which all but three of the prisoners escaped and in which a few men were killed or wounded on both sides.

President Roosevelt To Attend.

Philadelphia, Jan. 27.—Announcement has been made by the committee which had the matter in charge that President Roosevelt has accepted the invitation of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, Free and Accepted Masons, to be its guest on Tuesday, November 4 next, at the celebration of the 150th anniversary of the initiation of George Washington into the Masonic order. The celebration is to take place in the Masonic temple here.

Huntington, W. Va., Jan. 27.—Madened by jealousy, George Rakes, of this city, cut his wife to death with a hatchet and escaped.

AFTER LIBRARIES FOR MEXICO.

Consul General Hanna Trying to Induce Carnegie to Donate $4,000,000.

Monterey, Mexico, Jan. 27.—If the efforts now making by United States Consul General Philip C. Hanna are successful, $4,000,000 of Andrew Carnegie's wealth will be used in the establishment of libraries in Mexico. Of this amount one-fourth is planned to be used in the establishment of a magnificent library in Monterey. The plan contemplates the expenditure of the remaining three millions in the establishment of libraries at Chihuahua, Durango, Tampico, Torreon and San Luis Potosi.

General Hanna has taken up the matter with Mr. Carnegie direct and feels confident of success. He says he expects Mr. Carnegie to be particularly interested in the founding of a library in this city, because of the establishment here of the $10,000,000 steel plant and the consequent importing of skilled workmen from the states. General Hanna expects to hear something in connection with the Carnegie move within the next few days.

GEN. HODART DEAD.

ESCAPED FROM LIBBY PRISON.

Milwaukee, Jan. 27.—General Harrison C. Hobart, the last survivor of the Wisconsin constitutional convention, and one of, if not the last, survivor of the original five who planned and made the famous Ross tunnel and by it escaped from Libby prison, died of old age at the hospital, at the Soldiers' home.

HOME AFFAIRS.

Brief Notes of a Personal Nature and of Matters About Town.

Children's Party—Ruth, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chal Peterson, has issued invitations for a birthday party Saturday, Feb. 1.

For Board of Education—Omission was inadvertently made in the call for the Republican primary election of three members of the board of education who are to be nominated at that time.

Went to a Convention—Edwin Oppelt, of this city, and George B. Aten, of Wellsville, left last evening for Milwaukee to attend a convention of the National Association of Retail Grocers.

Want Union Stamp—Coopers' union No. 71 at its last meeting reinstated two members and passed a resolution asking the packers to see to it that the official stamp of the coopers was on all coopers before the sack was packed. This resolution was forwarded to the packers' local, to be read at the next meeting.

Rummage Sale a Success—The rummage sale in the interest of the hospital is still on, and the ladies report much patronage. They say, however, that with the amount of goods going out, there is abundant space and demand for more, and they desire that the public be prompt in its contributions.

Goes to a Hospital—Charles Mulhern left for Cleveland Saturday where he will have his right leg treated in a hospital. He was injured a few days ago by having a bale of straw fall on him at the D. E. McNicol pottery. His injuries have become worse. After being treated at the hospital he will go to his home at Summitville for convalescence.

No Holdup Attempted.
Joseph Cannon, who got into a little mixup Friday night with Ed O'Hanlon, denies emphatically that either he or his partners ever thought of holding the young man up. The mayor believes Cannon's story of the affair and so do those who know him best.

A Valuable Publication.
The World Almanac and International Encyclopedia for 1902 has been received. It is one of the handiest and most valuable of the annuals, and is indispensable to those who read for the purpose of keeping posted and desire information upon the countless topics touched upon in the daily press. There are few such questions that the World Almanac does not answer.

Asks Release From Bond.
Lisbon, January 27.—(Special)—James R. Sloan has asked to be released from the bond of Flora B. Hutter, of Hanover township, formerly Flora B. Ward, as guardian of Walter R. and Virgil R. Ward. The guardian has been ordered to furnish a new bond within 20 days.

CALL TO WHEELING

EXTENDED TO REV. J. G. REINARTZ, OF THIS CITY.

A Flattering Proposition From a Big Congregation in the Nail City.

Rev. J. G. Reinartz, pastor of St. John's Evangelical Lutheran church, has received another very flattering proposition in the shape of a unanimous call from Zion's Evangelical Lutheran church of Wheeling.

Zion church is the largest Lutheran church in Wheeling and one of the largest in the Pittsburgh diocese.

Mr. Reinartz has been in East Liverpool about 16 years and in that time has received no less than eight calls to other pastorates. So far he has declined all offers, and his parishioners are hoping that he will do the same with this one. The reverend gentleman was not prepared today to discuss this phase of the matter.

OFFICERS CHOSEN

By the Congregation of the Christian Church For the Present Year.

A most harmonious congregational meeting was held yesterday morning by the members of the Christian church, at which time officers for the fiscal year were elected as follows: Elder, Bernard Eagan; trustee, George Welsh; treasurer, J. A. Cullom; financial secretary, C. R. Reese; deacons, for two years, H. C. Walters, George Keegan, Frank Oswalt, Oscar Allison and C. R. Reese; clerk, M. R. Douglass; chorister, Miss Mary Lloyd; deaconesses, Mrs. W. R. Grafton, Mrs. Lizzie Booth, Miss Emma McKenty and Miss Catherine Morland.

This church is in excellent financial condition, and the membership has been increasing steadily during the past year.

KILLED AT A CROSSING

John Rabel, of Garfield, Met Death at Salem on Saturday Night.

Salem, January 27.—(Special)—John Rabel, of Garfield, was killed at a Ft. Wayne crossing here Saturday evening.

Rabel was about 24 years old. He was driving into town and two trains were passing and it was supposed he was confused. The watchman at the crossing failed to prevent him from being struck by the Cleveland Flyer, which was late and running fast. He lived about 25 minutes. He lived at Garfield with Rev. and Mrs. G. B. Malmesbury, who had reared him from childhood.

Rabel's horse was carried on the pilot for about 200 feet. The coroner held an inquest, but has not announced the verdict.

Councilmen Elected.

At the election which occurred at St. Aloysius' Catholic church yesterday, D. B. McNicol and John Lister were elected as councilmen to serve for a period of two years.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

In Memory of James N. Vodrey, Passed By First National Bank Directors.

At a special meeting of the Board of Directors of the First National bank of East Liverpool, O., held January 25, 1902, the following resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, It has been the will of God to take from this world our friend and former member, James N. Vodrey, and one of the original shareholders of this bank:

Resolved, That we feel it our duty to express officially our regard and respect for our late fellow-member, as well as our deep regret at his decease; ever faithful to his official duties, judicious and considerate in all his business relations, and so genial, cheerful and kind in his social characteristics, that we profoundly realize that we have lost not only one of our most esteemed members, but also a personal friend. His high character for integrity, candor and every manly virtue was such as to endear him to all as a companion and friend. We deeply deplore his death and sympathize with his family in their great affliction.

DAVID BOYCE, President.

N. G. MACRUM, Cashier.

A Correction.

I desire to correct the article that appeared in the Crisis Saturday evening with reference to my family saying anything about Floyd Miller. Myself and family have been, and are, in sympathy with Floyd and regret the unfortunate occurrence.

A NEW LOCAL FORMED

Handle Finishers Organize And Elect Officers—Over 50 Applicants.

A union was formed Saturday evening by the handle finishers, which is composed of boys ranging in age from 17 to 19 years. A meeting was held in the turners' and handlers' rooms and was attended by more than 50 applicants for membership.

Elsie Carey presided and officers were elected as follows: President, Elsie Carey; vice president, William Beardmore; recording secretary, Frank Coleman; financial secretary, Anthony Ward; treasurer, Edward Dickey; guard, Archie Stillwell.

A committee was appointed to draw up a constitution and by-laws. Another committee was also appointed to confer with all handle makers and request that they attend another meeting, which will be held by the new union on next Saturday evening.

IMPRESSIVE ADDRESS

Delivered Before the Y. M. C. A. By Prof. J. J. Rose Yesterday Afternoon.

Prof. J. J. Rose addressed the men's meeting at the Y. M. C. A. yesterday afternoon on "The Effects of an Ill-spent Life." He gave in effect a history of his own life up to 1895, when he was converted and saved from the drinking habit which had him fast. He drew many practical lessons and closed his address by singing "A Sinner Like Me," which, he said, was his first public testimony in the Danville, Pa., Y. M. C. A. meeting.

Marriage Licenses.

Lisbon, January 27.—(Special)—Marriage licenses have been granted as follows:

Cory B. Williams, Park, and Mary Hawkins, New Waterford.

John Shower and Mary Skelly, Lisbon.

Wm. F. Taylor and Rena E. Burlingame, Clarkson.

Edward L. Green and Anna J. Martin, East Liverpool.

Druggists' Banquet.

It is likely the retail druggists of this city will give a banquet early next month. The matter has been under discussion since the meeting held Friday afternoon and definite arrangements will be completed soon. The exact date has not been settled.

Attention, Fourth Ward Voters.

Owing to unforeseen circumstances I desire to announce to my friends who have endeavored to induce me to become a candidate for city council from the Fourth ward, that I have decided to decline the honor. I shall use my best endeavors to secure the nomination of Criss McConnell for the position, and would urge my friends to do the same.

HOME AFFAIRS.

Brief Notes of a Personal Nature and of Matters About Town.

Children's Party—Ruth, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chal Peterson, has issued invitations for a birthday party Saturday, Feb. 1.

For Board of Education—Omission was inadvertently made in the call for the Republican primary election of three members of the board of education who are to be nominated at that time.

Went to a Convention—Edwin Oppelt, of this city, and George B. Aten, of Wellsville, left last evening for Milwaukee to attend a convention of the National Association of Retail Grocers.

Want Union Stamp—Coopers' union No. 71 at its last meeting reinstated two members and passed a resolution asking the packers to see to it that the official stamp of the coopers was on all coopeage before the cask was packed. This resolution was forwarded to the packers' local, to be read at the next meeting.

Rummage Sale a Success—The rummage sale in the interest of the hospital is still on, and the ladies report much patronage. They say, however, that with the amount of goods going out, there is abundant space and demand for more, and they desire that the public be prompt in its contributions.

No Holdup Attempted.
Joseph Cannon, who got into a little mixup Friday night with Ed O'Hanlon, denies emphatically that either he or his partners ever thought of holding the young man up. The mayor believes Cannon's story of the affair and so do those who know him best.

A Valuable Publication.
The World Almanac and International Encyclopedia for 1902 has been received. It is one of the handiest and most valuable of the annals, and is indispensable to those who read for the purpose of keeping posted and desire information upon the countless topics touched upon in the daily press. There are few such questions that the World Almanac does not answer.

Asks Release From Bond.
Lisbon, January 27.—(Special)—James R. Sloan has asked to be released from the bond of Flora B. Hauer, of Hanover township, formerly Flora B. Ward, as guardian of Walter R. and Virgil R. Ward. The guardian has been ordered to furnish a new bond within 20 days.

CALL TO WHEELING

EXTENDED TO REV. J. G. REINHARTZ, OF THIS CITY.

A Flattering Proposition From a Big Congregation in the Nail City.

Rev. J. G. Reinhartz, pastor of St. John's Evangelical Lutheran church, has received another very flattering proposition in the shape of a unanimous call from Zion's Evangelical Lutheran church of Wheeling.

Zion church is the largest Lutheran church in Wheeling and one of the largest in the Pittsburgh diocese.

Mr. Reinhartz has been in East Liverpool about 16 years and in that time has received no less than eight calls to other pastorate. So far he has declined all offers, and his parishioners are hoping that he will do the same with this one. The reverend gentleman was not prepared today to discuss this phase of the matter.

OFFICERS CHOSEN

By the Congregation of the Christian Church For the Present Year.

A most harmonious congregational meeting was held yesterday morning by the members of the Christian church, at which time officers for the fiscal year were elected as follows: Elder, Bernard Eagan; trustee, George Welsh; treasurer, J. A. Cullom; financial secretary, C. R. Reese; deacons, for two years, H. C. Walters, George Keegan, Frank Oswald, Oscar Allison and C. R. Reese; clerk, M. R. Douglass; chorister, Miss Mary Lloyd; deaconesses, Mrs. W. R. Grafton, Mrs. Lizzie Booth, Miss Emma McKenty and Miss Catherine Morland.

This church is in excellent financial condition, and the membership has been increasing steadily during the past year.

KILLED AT A CROSSING

John Rabel, of Garfield, Met Death at Salem on Saturday Night.

Salem, January 27.—(Special)—John Rabel, of Garfield, was killed at a Ft. Wayne crossing here Saturday evening.

Rabel was about 24 years old. He was driving into town and two trains were passing and it was supposed he was confused. The watchman at the crossing failed to prevent him from being struck by the Cleveland Flyer, which was late and running fast. He lived about 25 minutes. He lived at Garfield with Rev. and Mrs. G. B. Malmsherry, who had reared him from childhood.

Rabel's horse was carried on the pilot for about 200 feet. The coroner held an inquest, but has not announced the verdict.

Councilmen Elected.

At the election which occurred at St. Aloysius' Catholic church yesterday, D. B. McNicol and John Lister were elected as councilmen to serve for a period of two years.

In Memory of James N. Vodrey, Passed By First National Bank Directors.

At a special meeting of the Board of Directors of the First National bank of East Liverpool, O., held January 25, 1902, the following resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, It has been the will of God to take from this world our friend and former member, James N. Vodrey, and one of the original shareholders of this bank;

Resolved, That we feel it our duty to express officially our regard and respect for our late fellow-member, as well as our deep regret at his decease; ever faithful to his official duties, judicious and considerate in all his business relations, and so genial, cheerful and kind in his social characteristics, that we profoundly realize that we have lost not only one of our most esteemed members, but also a personal friend. His high character for integrity, candor and every manly virtue was such as to endear him to all as a companion and friend. We deeply deplore his death and sympathize with his family in their great affliction.

Handle Finishers Organize And Elect Officers—Over 50 Applicants.

A union was formed Saturday evening by the handle finishers, which is composed of boys ranging in age from 17 to 19 years. A meeting was held in the turners' and handlers' rooms and was attended by more than 50 applicants for membership.

Elsie Carey presided and officers were elected as follows: President, Elsie Carey; vice president, William Beardmore; recording secretary, Frank Coleman; financial secretary, Anthony Ward; treasurer, Edward Dickey; guard, Archie Stillwell.

A committee was appointed to draw up a constitution and by-laws. Another committee was also appointed to confer with all handle makers and request that they attend another meeting, which will be held by the new union on next Saturday evening.

Delivered Before the Y. M. C. A. By Prof. J. J. Rose Yesterday Afternoon.

Prof. J. J. Rose addressed the men's meeting at the Y. M. C. A. yesterday afternoon on "The Effects of an Ill-spent Life." He gave in effect a history of his own life up to 1895, when he was converted and saved from the drinking habit which had him fast. He drew many practical lessons and closed his address by singing "A Sinner Like Me," which, he said, was his first public testimony in the Danville, Pa., Y. M. C. A. meeting.

Wm. F. Taylor and Rena E. Burlingame, Clarkson.

Edward L. Green and Anna J. Martin, East Liverpool.

Druggists' Banquet.

It is likely the retail druggists of this city will give a banquet early next month. The matter has been under discussion since the meeting held Friday afternoon and definite arrangements will be completed soon. The exact date has not been settled.

Attention, Fourth Ward Voters.

Owing to unforeseen circumstances I desire to announce to my friends who have endeavored to induce me to become a candidate for city council from the Fourth ward, that I have decided to decline the honor. I shall use my best endeavors to secure the nomination of Criss McConnell for the position, and would urge my friends to do the same.

GOOD PROGRAM FOR SERVICES

Arrangements For M'Kinley Day Memorial Meeting Made at Committee Meeting.

Arrangements are progressing well for the McKinley memorial services to be held at the opera house next Wednesday afternoon at 2:30. The committee of arrangements met in the office of Jason H. Brookes on Saturday afternoon.

An earnest request is made to the manufacturers and business men to close their factories and stores on Wednesday afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock. It is the desire of the committee that business of every character be suspended between the hours named as a mark of respect to the memory of the late president.

Arrangements will be made by Prof. Laughlin and Hatch to have every church choir in the city represented, and a meeting will be held at the Y. M. C. A. hall Tuesday evening at 7 for the purpose of rehearsing the music. The members of the several choirs and all other vocalists are earnestly urged to be present at this meeting. The committee on music consists of Profs. Hatch, Laughlin, Haines and Manley. The musical program will contain McKinley's favorite hymns, "Lead, Kindly Light," and "Nearer, My God, to Thee."

Chief of Police Thos. V. Thompson and S. J. Cripps have been selected to arrange the opera house for the occasion and appropriately decorate the stage.

Mayor W. C. Davidson will preside at the meeting, and the opening prayer will be made by Rev. Dr. Clark Crawford, of the First M. E. church. Addresses will be made by Rev. Father T. M. Smith, W. E. Wells, T. J. Duffy, Rev. J. C. Taggart, Rev. C. G. Jordan and Attorney W. B. Hill.

A collection will be taken up at the conclusion of the ceremonies for the benefit of the memorial fund.

day next to the McKinley memorial services.

The following is the outline of exercises: Birthplace, boyhood, student and teacher, soldier, lawyer, member of congress (when and how long), governor of Ohio (when and how long), president of the United States (when and how long), William McKinley, "The Man"; music.

Prof. Rayman desires that the exercises shall be brief, interesting and of such a nature as to leave "lasting and helpful impressions." "Biography," he says, "is the very soul of history, and for this reason the study of the lives of great characters should build up strong manhood."

ALL THE ENTRIES FOR COUNTY OFFICES

TIME FOR ANNOUNCEMENTS EXPIRED SATURDAY.

Taylor for Congress And Martin for Probate Judge Are Unopposed.

The time limit in which candidates for the Republican nomination can enter their names upon the list, expired Saturday at 12 o'clock noon.

Secretary McNutt, of the county committee, submits the following official list:

Congressman—R. W. Taylor.
Probate Judge—James A. Martin, of Lisbon.

Recorder—W. D. Turner, Salem; Charles A. White, Salineville.

Commissioner—M. P. Carnes, Center township; Ira Kannal, Unity; Willis Gaston, East Liverpool; R. G. Boyd, East Liverpool.

Infirmary Director—W. A. Tarr, Center (second term).

Coroner—J. L. Straughn, Center.
Surveyor—J. C. Kelly.

It will be seen that Congressman Taylor has no opposition in this county. According to a rule adopted at the recent meeting of the committee, the names of delegates to the congressional convention shall appear upon the ballot and they shall be selected by townships.

This assures Congressman Taylor a solid delegation from Columbiana, and no candidates have been announced from either Stark or Mahoning, his nomination is assured.

On the county ticket J. A. Martin, for probate judge is the only candidate on the list. It will be remembered that Mr. Martin made a very game fight for the position four years ago, being beaten by Judge Boone.

GRAND RECORD OF ST. STEPHEN'S

Told In Rev. Edwin Weary's Anniversary Sermon Sunday Morning.

Of Work Accomplished in Four Years. Collections Were $25,359, an Average of $6,340 Per Year—New Members Added Numbered 175.

Reviewing the past and looking into the future was the purpose of the anniversary service held yesterday morning at St. Stephen's Episcopal church. The service marked the fourth year of the rectorship of Rev. Edwin Weary in this city. The attendance was quite large, while the music rendered by the vested choir was pleasing.

While his remarks could not be exactly considered as a sermon, Rev. Mr. Weary gave an interesting resume of the events that have transpired in the church during his charge. Evidence was thus afforded that some wonderful church work had been done during these four years, not only by the rector, but by the congregation as well. The rector said:

"We know of the past, and the future seems a blank. In vain we seek to know Time's holdings. We must read page by page, knowing that He who has been with us in our trials in the past four years is with us today and will be near always in the future."

Gently did the speaker refer to those members of the church who have died during his rectorship. "We pass on with renewed vigor," said the speaker. "We have our daily labors to perform, giving each but little time for rest; but I fear we give too much thought to things secular. You have called upon me to help you and I have done my best, remembering at all times that my work is yours, and your labors mine."

In reviewing the work done during his rectorship, the following statistics were presented:

The first year there were raised $1,200; second year, $5,049.31; third year, $9,860.56; fourth year, $10,794.95, and from May last until the present time, $2,445, or a total of $29,359.82 have been raised for church work.

In four years there were 149 persons baptized, 156 confirmations, 50 marriages and 48 deaths; 288 public and 27 private communions. The present expenses of the church annually are $1,964. This makes the expenses of the church about $38 a week.

Valuation of property, 1898—Church lot, $11,000; church, $6,000; rectory, $1,500; parish building, $2,500; total, $21,000. Valuation, 1902—Church lot, $12,000; church, $23,000; rectory, $2,750; parish building, $2,500; total, $40,250; increase in valuation of buildings, $19,250; amount of insurance on property, $19,000.

As the present membership is about 302, it can be readily seen that the church and rector have done some remarkable work during the past four years.

A FIRE STATION FOR NORTH SIDE

The Project Has Now Assumed a Definite and Tangible Shape.

Has Been Taken And an Effort Will Be Made to Induce Council to Purchase It—Matter to Be Presented to the Solons at Once.

Residents of the North Side, who have long been agitating without any apparent success the proposition for the establishment of a paid fire department in that section, may have their needs in that direction supplied within a very short time.

At any rate an effort is to be made at council tomorrow evening to arrange for the extra station. R. C. Heddleston has always favored the move and it is he who proposes to bring the matter up before council.

It was learned today that a number of interested persons have secured an option on a lot in the North Side which is located in a section easily accessible from all surrounding points. It is the intention of Mr. Heddleston to try to induce council to purchase the lot and erect the proposed new station thereon.

He contends that the expense will be small and argues that the need of the extra fire protection is incalculably great. A reel which is at present at the central station can be used by the new department, it is said, and other surplus equipment taken there. New hose may have to be purchased, but little other material would be needed. In speaking of his proposition which will be submitted to council, Mr. Heddleston said:

"I intend to ask council to appoint a committee to act with the fire committee in making provisions for the new station. The option which has been secured on the North Side lot will hold good for several days. It was obtained with the expectation that council would take measures to establish the extra fire protection and I hope to be able to assist the North Side people in bringing about the relief which is so badly needed."

A FAITHFUL DOG SAVES MASTER

Man Lying Helpless On the Ice When the Animal Attracted a Passerby to Him.

While walking along Second street at a late hour Saturday night, Zach Denning, a well-known young potter, came upon a big dog at the alley between Union and Washington streets, which made a determined and finally successful attempt to stop him. On first seeing the dog Denning was somewhat frightened, as the animal crouched down directly in his pathway and, with a peculiar whine, raised itself to a standing posture and placed its fore paws against Denning's breast.

His curiosity became aroused. The wise and faithful animal started down the alley, eagerly watching to see if the young man followed.

Following closely Denning proceeded to a dark and lonely part of the alley, where he was startled to come upon the apparently lifeless body of a man.

Bending over the prostrate form the rescuer at once recognized one of his friends. Taking hold of one of his shoulders he made an effort to get the man on his feet, when, to his astonishment, the dog seized the other shoulder with its fore paws and made an effort to lend assistance.

Presently the helpless victim uttered a moan and attempted to talk, when, with a great cry of joy the dog threw itself against its master and could scarcely be made to leave him. After raising the man to his feet, Denning, with much difficulty, started him to walking, when, after a time, he was able to be taken to his home.

The man had been lying flat on the ice in a spot where he would not possibly have been found before daylight, and had it not been for the timely assistance of his faithful dog he would doubtless have frozen to death. The unfortunate man is a well known potter. Saturday evening he got with a party of friends and had made a round of the barrooms.

CAUSED SURPRISE IN THE CHURCH

HIS LETTER OF FAREWELL

Read to the Congregation, Caused Many to Weep—He has Received a Call to Sharon, Pa.—Presbytery to Meet And Act Soon.

With bowed head and many of his congregation before him weeping, Rev. J. R. Greene, for seven years pastor of the Second U. P. church in the East End, tendered his resignation last night, the resignation taking effect at once. Never in the history of the little church was such a scene witnessed as that of last evening.

The fact that the pastor was to present his resignation was not known to more than a dozen members of the church. The average member least thought of this being a part of the evening's program. Shortly after 7 o'clock Rev. Mr. Greene came into the little church, taking a seat in the front pew. Not many were in the room at the time, and it could plainly be seen that he was in deep thought. Soon the lights were turned up, the young people in the rear room were singing their closing hymn and then the service of the evening commenced.

After the usual devotional exercises Rev. Mr. Greene preached a sermon that brought tears to the eyes of many hearers. The text was Joshua 3:8. In part he said:

"We go forward in life until we have reached the limit. We stop at the limit just to review affairs. We come to our end in character building, and what have we done. We all aim to live and copy Christ's examples. What are we going to do about it? Are we to give up the trials just because we do not understand? Some day the veil will be lifted. We cut and hew and get discouraged, but some day we shall be satisfied when we wake up in His likeness. We go so far and leave the rest with God. The thief on the cross had reached the limit. The limit was 'Lord, remember me.'"

"We go no longer together. Go as you have gone heretofore forward in the way our paths lead us. We separate tonight. This is not the time for fault-finding, to blame one another for mistakes if there have been any. I believe you are all friends of mine and believe I have the privilege of entering the homes of any of this congregation. Let us stop as we have started, friends. Now, we have gone the limit."

Taking a paper from his coat pocket, the minister read the following: "To the Members and Adherents of

HE WAS KILLED IN A QUARREL

THOMAS LAWRENCE WAS SHOT TWICE AT ALTONA, ILL.

He Died the Next Day—Relatives Live in This City and County.

Altona, Ill., January 27.—Thomas Lawrence, of this town, a young man whose relatives live in East Liverpool and Columbiana county, was shot twice by Thomas McLain a week ago Saturday night.

The shooting took place in the grocery store of Heptonstall & McLain and was the result of a quarrel.

Lawrence was taken to the hospital, where he died the following evening. McLain is in jail.

EXCELLENT MEETINGS

Services at the First M. E. Church on Sunday Were Deeply Interesting.

The Sunday school service was merged into a decision meeting and about 50 of the scholars announced their intention of living a Christian life.

At 11 o'clock Dr. Dunham preached a very able sermon and the congregation was deeply moved. The after service was of unusual interest and much good was accomplished.

Dr. Dunham preached a powerful sermon in the evening from the subject: "Demands of Divine Law." The attendance was very large and toward the end of the meeting the portion of the church near the altar was crowded with persons asking the prayers of the congregation.

FATAL EXPLOSION

Dynamite in the New York Subway Kills 7 Persons And Injures 25.

New York, January 27.—(Special)—A big explosion of dynamite occurred today in the Rapid Transit subway, Park avenue and Forty-first street.

There were 7 persons killed and 25 injured.

Great damage was done to the Murray Hill hotel, also to the Grand Union.

He left the orient a month in advance, and by so doing the government saved travel pay.

Carman will remain with his father for several months, and perhaps may locate in the East End.

FELL FROM A ROOF

William Cellie, a Carpenter, Got Bad Fall But Was Uninjured.

William Cellie, a carpenter, on Saturday was employed on a residence being erected on Harker avenue. He was working on the roof of a new building when his feet slipped, causing him to fall to the ground. Luckily he alighted on his feet, receiving but a shaking up. He walked off and few if any of his fellow workmen knew of his mishap.

The funeral services over the remains of Clyde, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Kidder, were held yesterday afternoon at the Erie street M. E. church, Rev. N. M. Crowe and Rev. George W. Orcutt officiating. A large number of friends were present at the service. Interment was at Riverview cemetery.

EAST END AFFAIRS.

Mrs. J. G. Smith, of Pennsylvania avenue, is able to set up after a severe attack of pneumonia.

Mrs. Porter, wife of Dr. Porter, of Cleveland, is visiting her brother, Rev. J. R. Greene, of Pennsylvania avenue.

Local No. 52, street railway employees, met in the East End Saturday evening. Four new members were obligated and one application for membership was received.

Attachment proceedings were issued in the court of Justice Carman, of the East End, against Charles Dyke for $12.10 by Chambers & Co. The case is set for Wednesday evening.

A RELIABLE NEWSPAPER

The Times of Pittsburg is Ably Edited and Gives All the News.

The Pittsburg Times is the only daily newspaper in that city which does not have a Sunday edition. The Times puts all its energies and money into publishing the best newspaper there six days out of the week. Its humane idea is that men and newspapers should have one day's rest in seven. The Times shows the results of this in sending out a vigorous paper. Accuracy and brevity are its watchwords.

Its editorial page is the work of several specialists and is one that commends itself in its discussion of current topics to the children of the public schools, as well as their fathers, mothers, teachers and all who read and think. In politics its policy is Republican, giving all the news of all parties as well. The sporting page is in the hands of an expert. The Times also pays particular attention to church matters, and its church news is at once reliable and general. Its special correspondents everywhere keep its pages day by day a perfect mirror of the world. The woman's page is carefully edited. The Times is a model paper. Six days a week for six cents.

PENNSYLVANIA DEMOCRATS

Will Await Result of February Elections And Then Consider Governorship.

Philadelphia, Jan. 27.—A special dispatch to the Philadelphia Times from Washington says: The Democrats of Pennsylvania will do nothing regarding the coming contest in the state until after the February elections. They will wait until these have been held and see what the result may be. Shortly after these elections a conference will be held in Philadelphia, participated in by the leading Democrats of the state, when a plan of action to be pursued and also the selection of a candidate for governor will undoubtedly be agreed upon.

This last is the most important matter to be decided at the conference. Many names have been mentioned as the Democratic gubernatorial candidate, among them being Representative J. K. P. Hall, of Elk county, ex-Governor Pattison, ex-Attorney General W. U. Hensel and Judge James Gay Gordon, of Philadelphia. The former is willing to enter the race should the Philadelphia conference decide upon his name.

National Committeeman James H. Guffey has been in the city during the past few days. He has consulted leading Democrats from Pennsylvania on the situation in that state. He has also discussed the condition of affairs in the Keystone state with national Democrats, and they have become greatly interested because of the chance for winning next fall.

GERMAN PRESS IRRITATED.

Berlin, Jan. 27.—The German press throughout shows irritation over the alleged British attempts to throw suspicion on the policy entertained towards the United States by Germany before the outbreak of the Spanish-American war. Nearly all the German newspapers regard these alleged attempts in the same light as does the Deutsche Tages Zeitung. Dwelling upon the motives which actuated the interpellation of Mr. Henry Norman in the British house of commons, Jan. 20, that paper says:

"In the London reports cabled to New York it is alleged that Germany was the instigator of a plan to bring about intervention by the European powers against the United States. This is a direct blow in the face of truth. But what of it? It might, perhaps, on the verge of Prince Henry's visit, create ill feelings in the United States, in which case the object underlying Mr. Norman's interpellation and the answer thereto of Lord Cranborne, as well as that of the inventions sent abroad by English news paper agencies, would be fulfilled."

MILES NOT A CANDIDATE.

Writes Letter Disclaiming Any Presidential Ambition.

Boston, Jan. 27.—In a letter to George F. Washburn, of the Commonwealth club, General Nelson A. Miles disposes of his presidential boom as follows:

"You desire information as to the truth or falsity of the newspaper reports from Washington making me an active candidate for the presidency. I deeply regret these reports. Like many others in the past, they are absolutely unauthorized. They don't emanate from myself or from my friends, and I trust the public will not be misled by them. I have not been and am not now a seeker for presidential honors. My ambition has ever been to faithfully serve my country in whatever sphere duty may have dictated, and this will be my sole purpose in the future."

Of the $1,000,000 fund which is to be raised, $620,000 has been taken in or pledged. At Sunday's meeting a large sum was raised, the largest subscription, $3,000, coming from Tremont Sunday school, while there was one individual subscription of $1,000.

TOLD IN EAST LIVERPOOL

The Renown of the Great Author and Centered in East Liverpool People.

It's by the words of the people that Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills have come into such active demand. The announcements for this medicine are not dependent on the testimony of people so far away that they cannot be authenticated. It's home evidence that convinces because easily substantiated. It's the simple statement of things done and told in the words of the relieved.

Mr. M. Rushton, of No. 387 West Market street, East Liverpool, Ohio, says: "Before I used Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills I got at Larkins' drug store, corner Sixth and East Market streets. I was bilious, head felt achy and dull. The effect of the medicine was to regulate the liver, clear the head, give a feeling of strength, energy and new life. This I think justifies a recommendation."

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are sold at 50 cents a box at dealers, or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine company, Buffalo, N. Y. See that portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., are on every package.

ROBBED AND CREMATED.

Two Men Were Burned While Friends Looked On Helplessly.

Warren, O., Jan. 27.—Michael Sweeney, a target man, employed on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, near Niles, was robbed and then cremated. The murderers are thought to be tramps.

Passing trainmen saw the target house blazing and ran to it. When they reached the house they saw Sweeney lying inside, unable to move, apparently stunned, but moaning. They were kept back by the fire and could only stand and see him burned to a crisp.

Insurgents Active on Negros.

Manila, Jan. 27.—Colonel Charles W. Miner, of the Sixth infantry, reports the conditions on the island of Negros to be unsatisfactory and that 400 bolomen and 40 men armed with rifles, under the command of the fanatical bandit leader, Bapa Islo, are terrorizing the people.

An Attack of Pneumonia Warded Off. "Some time ago my daughter caught a severe cold. She complained of pains in her chest and had a bad cough. I gave her Chamberlain's Cough Remedy according to directions and in two days she was well and able to go to school. I have used this remedy in my family for the past seven years and have never known it to fail," says James Prendergast, merchant, Annato Bay, Jamaica, West India Islands. The pains in the chest indicated an approaching attack of pneumonia, which in this instance was undoubtedly ward off by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It counteracts any tendency of a cold toward pneumonia. For sale by Alvin H. Bulger, Druggist.

COLD WAVE BY NIGHT

Such a Prediction Made by the Weather Bureau For This Section.

EXTREMELY COLD IN THE WEST.

Twenty-five Degrees Below Zero Was Reported In Some Sections In the West.

Jan. 27.—The weather bureau made the following prediction:—Rain, probably turning to snow, with a COLD WAVE BY NIGHT. Tomorrow fair; winds becoming westerly and fresh to brisk.

Omaha, Jan. 27.—Reports received last night indicate that the losses of cattle by Saturday's blizzard in the Ogallala section, where the storm was most severe, will be very small. Less favorable reports have come from the northwestern part of the state, and in the extreme western section the losses of cattle are said to be very heavy. So far no loss of life has been reported. A temperature of 25 degrees below zero was reported from Alliance, with a heavy wind intensifying the cold.

Lincoln Car Lines Were Tied Up.

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 27.—Nebraska suffered from below zero weather Sunday. A brisk north wind blew across the state and intensified the disagreeable temperature. The weather was generally clear and the sun shone. None of the railroad lines was entirely blocked, although on many of the branch lines snow plows were found necessary. Trains from the west were from one to six hours late. Reports from the ranges indicated considerable suffering to stock in Lincoln, the street car lines were tied up. It was clear and cold last night, reports from the state indicating a temperature of from 8 to 16 degrees below zero.

Topeka, Kansas, Jan. 27.—Clear and very cold, with the weather condition over the entire state, according to reports received here last night. Cattle on the western ranges were suffering, and much loss is likely to ensue unless the situation shall improve. Very little wind accompanied the cold, and this made the conditions more favorable.

The coldest portion of the state last night was the northern tier of counties. Phillipsburg reported the mercury as reading 10 below, with clear skies and little wind. In the western part of the state the cold was moderating, the mercury being from 8 to 14 degrees above zero. In the eastern portion of the state the weather was very near the zero mark.

The snow which fell Saturday is packed tight, and the wheat will be well protected.

Coldest This Winter In Oklahoma.

Guthrie, Okla., Jan. 27.—The coldest weather of the winter was experienced Sunday, with the thermometer at zero all day, and a brisk north wind covered all Oklahoma. Large cattle interests will suffer greatly, no matter what provision has been made to protect them. The wheat crop will also suffer loss, as not enough snow has accompanied the blizzard to protect the rank growth. In the new country, settlers, and especially those in moving wagons, of which there are hundreds, will suffer. In the Indian territory, principally in the Creek nation, where the full bloods are in destitute circumstances, the conditions are very bad for undergoing the rigors of such weather.

Lacrosse, Wis., Jan. 27.—The heaviest snow of the season fell here Sunday. The thermometer was falling rapidly last night. The mercury last night registered 10 degrees below zero.

Niles, Mich., Jan. 27.—A terrific snow storm set in here at 7 o'clock last night. The temperature fell 20 degrees in three hours.

The Educated Man

..AND..

His Characteristics

By NICHOLAS MURRAY BUTLER, President of Columbia University

FIRST among the evidences of an education I name correctness and precision in the use of the mother tongue.

It is no disrespect to the splendid literatures which are embodied in the French and the German tongues and no lack of appreciation of the services of those great peoples to civilization and to culture to point out that of modern languages the ENGLISH IS EASILY THE FIRST AND THE MOST POWERFUL, for "it is the greatest instrument of communication that is now in use among men upon the earth." It is the speech of an aggressive people, among whom individual liberty and personal initiative are highly prized.

The educated man, at home with his mother tongue, knows the wide distinction between correct English on the one hand and pedantic or, as it is sometimes called, "elegant" English on the other. HE IS MORE LIKELY TO GO TO BED THAN TO RETIRE, TO GET UP THAN TO ARISE.

He knows that "if you hear poor English and read poor English you will pretty surely speak poor English and write poor English" and governs himself accordingly.

As a second evidence of an education I name those refined and gentle manners which are the expression of fixed habits of thought and of action. Manners have a moral significance and find their basis in that true and deepest self respect for others. An infallible test of character is to be found in one's manners toward those whom for one reason or another the world may deem his inferiors.

As a third evidence of an education I name the power and habit of reflection; for an unexamined life, as Socrates unceasingly insisted, is not worth living.

The question how, whose answer is science, and the question why, whose answer is philosophy, are the beginnings of reflection. A truly educated man asks both questions continually and as a result is habituated to reflection.

AS A FOURTH EVIDENCE OF AN EDUCATION I NAME THE POWER OF GROWTH. A HUMAN MIND CONTINUING TO GROW AND TO DEVELOP THROUGHOUT A LONG LIFE IS A SPLENDID AND IMPRESSIVE SIGHT.

It was that characteristic of Mr. Gladstone which made his personality so attractive to young and ambitious men.

And as a fifth evidence of an education I name efficiency, the power to do. Today the truly educated man must be in some sense efficient. The habit of making knowledge power is efficiency. Without it education is incomplete.

These five characteristics, then, I offer as evidences of an education—correctness and precision in the use of the mother tongue; refined and gentle manners, which are the expression of fixed habits of thought and action; the power and habit of reflection, the power of growth, and efficiency or the power to do.

of laws allowing Chinamen to enter the Philippine islands, under such restrictions as the United States Philippine commission may enact. The present restrictive law concerning immigration, continues this appeal, is of no benefit to the Filipinos.

Chinamen, if admitted, would not enter into competition with local labor and their entry into the islands is imperatively needed, as the tobacco, hemp and sugar lands of the archipelago are only partially cultivated. Without this legislation the country cannot be properly developed. Building in Manila has been badly retarded because of this lack of labor, and for these reasons the American chamber of commerce, composed entirely of American citizens, representing commercial interests, respectfully prays for immediate action in this matter.

BUENCAMINO WANTS EXPOSITION HELD AT MANILA.

Manila, Jan. 27.—Felipe Buencamino, one of the directors of the Federal party, is endeavoring to inaugurate an exhibition of commerce to be held next December. He relies mainly upon exhibits from the United States, China, Japan, Siam and Borneo. The merchants of Manila are inclined to think that this exhibition should be delayed another year, but, if sufficient support is promised, the United States Philippine commission will be asked to assist in carrying out the idea.

McKinley Memorial Services Held.

Cleveland, Jan. 27.—At many of the churches of Cleveland special McKinley memorial services were held Sunday. TAFT TOLD TRUTH

Denies Bonsal's Statement That the Government Has Suppressed Facts.

Upon Which the Government's Conclusions, as to Affairs in the Philippines Is Based—His Mother-in-Law, Mrs. Herron, Dead.

Chicago, Jan. 27.—William H. Taft, civil governor of the Philippine islands, arrived in Chicago yesterday afternoon from San Francisco. He was met at the depot by President S. M. Felton, of the Chicago and Alton Railroad company, and went at once to Mr. Felton's residence, where he spent the day.

Governor Taft left last night over the Pennsylvania road for Cincinnati. It was his intention to hurry on to Washington tomorrow, but the death of Mrs. Herron, his mother-in-law, at Cincinnati, caused him to alter his plans, and it will be several days before he will reach the capital.

"The only answer I have to make to the ideas of individual observers, who declare that the true condition in the Philippines is being concealed, or that we are hugging delusions of peace that can never be brought about, is that the government is concealing nothing, and that its conclusions are not based on wild theories, but substantial facts."

This was the reply Governor Taft made to a statement published by Stephen Bonsal, declaring that desperate opposition was still being encountered in the field and that the natives are irreconcilable and better organized than before the capture of Aguinaldo.

THE PHILIPPINE TARIFF BILL

House Forecast.

Washington, Jan. 27.—The senate will devote its principal attention this week to the Philippine tariff bill. It is the purpose of Senator Lodge, who is in charge of the bill, to keep it before the senate persistently until it is disposed of. He does not count on final action for some time. It is not the present purpose of the friends of the bill to debate it, but the attacks which will be made on it and upon the entire administration of Philippine affairs inevitably will bring republicans from many of the Republican senators. It is understood that a majority of the senators on the Democratic side of the chamber will be heard before the bill is passed. Among those who will speak early are Senators Carmack, Money, Teller, Culberson, Turner, Patterson, Jones, of Arkansas, and Bacon. Senator Lodge will seek the earliest opportunity to have the amendments recommended by his committee formally adopted, but probably will not press these when senators are prepared to proceed with set speeches. Senator Nelson will take advantage of every chance to have the bill creating a department of commerce considered, with the hope of securing action upon it during the week if possible.

Committee Hearings of Interest—No Program For House.

Washington, Jan. 27.—The house leaders have made no program for the work of the present week, as there are no measures of importance pressing for attention, although the anti-oleomargarine bill and the Hill bill for the exchangeability of gold and silver are both on the calendar and may be taken up before long. Thus far no exact time has been fixed for either of these measures, and the lesser bills will take their chances as opportunity presents itself. There promises to be considerable time to spare during the week, as there are no appropriation bills ready to fill the gap when bills of a general nature are lacking. The chief interest of the week centers in the opening of hearings by the ways and means committee on the reduction of war revenue taxes. The committee gives today to this subject, hearing the beer interests in the morning and the tea interests in the afternoon.

Tomorrow the committee returns to the subject of Cuban reciprocity, hearing more of the representatives of beet sugar, and also several Cuban planters who have come to the United States to present their view of the case. One of the members of the committee, Representative Long, of Kansas, left for home Saturday, to be gone a week, and this led to an understanding among the Republican members of the committee that no action on Cuban reciprocity would be taken for a week.

PRINCE TO REVIEW PARADE.

New York German Societies to Have a Torchlight Procession.

New York, Jan. 27.—Representatives of the various German societies of New York city met to further consider plans for the reception of Prince Henry. It was decided that there should be a torchlight procession on the evening of Feb. 26, the same evening on which the newspaper men of the country will meet the prince at dinner. It was announced that Dr. Von Holleben had given his sanction to the procession.

It is estimated that more than 30,000 marchers will be in line, and Prince Henry will review the parade from the building of the Arlon society, Fifty-ninth street and Park avenue.

Wintering in Colorado And Utah.

The climate of Colorado and Utah has long been world famous, but it is only within recent years that attention has been given to the delightful winter climate of these states. Today physicians all over the United States send their patients to Colorado and Utah to escape the rigors of eastern winters and to benefit by her invigorating atmosphere and health-giving sunshine.

It is not necessary to add an elaborate argument—the conclusion is self-evident and inevitable. The winter climate of Colorado and Utah on the whole presents advantages for the invalid and the pleasure-seeker that cannot fail to command attention.

An erroneous impression prevails that because the Rocky mountains have a high elevation the mercury in the thermometer drops down below zero in the winter season and stops there, and that the snow mounts up with the altitude. The fact is that the average precipitation of moisture in the lowlands of the mountain region during the entire year is only 14.15 inches. With such average precipitation there is practically no danger of snow blockades on the railroads, save at a few points exposed to drifts and these points have been amply protected. This is especially true of the lines of the Denver & Rio Grande and the Rio Grande Western between Denver and Ogden at all seasons of the year. Facts speak for themselves, and the fact is that travel over "The Scenic Line of the World" has gone on with less interruption from snow blockades during the last ten winters than it has upon the majority of railroads in other localities which are popularly supposed to be more free from such delays than the mountain systems. SCOTCH TEAM TRIUMPH

Scotch Team Three Straight
Victims Showed Admirable Skill, But Were Outscored by Good Scores Made.

Fourteen miles through the snow and cold drove the famous bowling aggregation of Lisbon to meet an unexpected and humiliating defeat on Campbell's bowling alleys Saturday evening at the hands of Captain Shingler's team. The visiting players boasted long and loud of their ability and have been quoted as having said "We can beat any team in Columbiana county, especially the Wellsville team."

This challenge had a tendency to excite envy and make the local players exceedingly anxious to give the hoasters a chance to prove their audacious championship claims. Hence, the games were arranged for Saturday evening. A large number of enthusiasts witnessed the contest and each player on making a creditable "clean-up" was vigorously applauded.

A series of three games was bowled, the visitors losing all. At no time during the games did they have a show for victory. They were surprisingly easy victims. The lineup, with total scores of individual players in the three games, follows:

Lisbon—Evans, 567; Shaffer, 434; Marquis, 462; Seeton, 404; Bowman, 427.

Wellsville—Shingler, 510; Hall, 466; Aten, 597; Harsha, 485; Karr, 488. Total number of points scored by Lisbon, 2,294; Wellsville, 2,546. The highest individual score was made by Willet Aten in the third game—226. He was closely followed by Evans, who made 223.

Attorney Charles R. McGregor acted as referee and Harvey Grim as official scorer.

Though crushed down to distasteful defeat, the Lisbon boys made a brave and admirable struggle. They, however, were in company too fact for them and should indulge in much-needed practice with the lesser fry.

DEMAND COMPLIED WITH

Lisbon Amalgamated Men Agree to Pay Assessment to the National Lodge.

George D. Evans, Jr., of Lisbon, the well known deputy organizer of the Amalgamated Association, was in the city Saturday evening and in a conversation with a News Review reporter told of an important meeting held in Lisbon Saturday afternoon, the result of which will be interesting to the many members of the association in Wellsville. Mr. Evans said:

"At the meeting the members of the association agreed to pay the assessment due the national lodge, although for months we refused to do so. Our chief reason for coming to this agreement was for the advancement of the interests of the association. Had we not complied with the demand of the lodge we would have lost our seat in the convention, which meets at Wheeling during the month of April."

Mr. Evans is very popular in Wellsville, having taken a prominent part in the strike last summer.

Twenty-Two Persons Arrested at Laughlin's And Keenan's Resorts.

Chief Morrissey and his corps of blue coats established a record Saturday night which will be everlastingly remembered by at least 22 men and women.

Lester Laughlin's resort on Coal street was "pulled" and the proprietor

with five women and five male visitors were escorted to police headquarters. Immediately after they were placed behind the bars a raid was made upon Joseph Keenan's place on Second street when the proprietor, five women and four male visitors were found holding high carnival. They were also given rest in the city building. The whole crowd was turned loose, in a few minutes, upon depositing a $10 forfeit with Chief Morrissey for their appearance before Mayor Dennis this evening.

Great Financial Success.

The supper given by the ladies of the church of the Immaculate Conception Friday evening and the social given by them Saturday evening was beyond doubt a great success. The receipts of the affair amounted to over $1,500.

Father Halligan and members of the church are much elated over the pleasing results.

Revival Services.

Rev. Charles E. Clark, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, last evening announced that revival services will be held every evening of the week, to which every one is invited. The services tonight will be especially for the benefit of the young people.

MINOR NEWS OF WELLSVILLE.

The Misses Ruby Mason and Mary McDonald visited in Pittsburgh Saturday.

Attorney Charles R. McGregor returned Saturday evening from a business visit in Pittsburgh.

Mr. Harris, master mechanic at the shops, spent Sunday with relatives in Leetonia.

Miss Nan Stevenson is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Ralph Sweetser, at Leetonia.

Miss Stone, Madame Tsilka and Child Were Located Near Yapyak.

Djumala, European Turkey, Jan. 27.—Miss Stone, the captive American missionary, and her companion, Mme. Tsilka, have been located near Yapyak, in the vicinity of the frontier. The American delegates conducting the negotiations for the release of the captives have arrived at Banisko (about 30 miles southeast of Djumala), and, it was expected, would probably pay over the ransom money yesterday.

The infant daughter of Madame Tsilka has been christened Elenika.

FOR EXTENSION OF THE RAILROAD FROM CHESTER.

Several Sales of Property Made By Farmers in Vicinity of Shippingport.

Michael Kerr, of the firm of Kerr Brothers, East End contractors, returned this morning from Shippingport, Pa., where he visited relatives Sunday. While there Mr. Kerr was advised of several sales of property made by farmers in the vicinity of Shippingport to the Pennsylvania Railroad company. For months the company was after the right of way through the Spear farm, but the owners asked $1,000 for the privilege, or they would sell the entire farm for $1,800.

The deal was perfected last week and deals are now pending for other leases, prominent among which is the right of way through the farm owned by Dr. Christley, of Pittsburgh. In company with officials of the railroad, Dr. Christley visited his farm near Shippingport a few days ago, and it is understood the company will secure the right of way through this farm.

Surveyors are still at work along this part of the river, and the building of the extension of the New Cumberland branch is almost assured.

WORK AT THE MILL

Bad Weather Last Week Delayed the Roofing of the Finishing Department.

Had it not been for the inclement weather during the past week the finishing department of the mill would have been under cover. The tanners have been laid off and in consequence only a small portion of this department is roofed.

The elevated track has been completed and as a result the furnaces are being well supplied with fuel.

A gang of men is busily engaged in driving piles at the edge of the river as a support to the plant which, were the piles not driven, would be in constant danger of sliding into the river.

Royal Arcanum Growing.

At a meeting of the Royal Arcanum held recently three applications for membership were received, and two candidates were voted upon who will be initiated at the next meeting of the lodge to be held on the evening of Feb. 13. At the last session two officers were installed who were not present at the meeting two weeks ago.

Christian Church Revival.

The revival services at the Christian church, which were started last Sunday evening, will continue throughout the week, under the leadership of Rev. J. W. Gorrell. Each service has been the cause of good work being done and a number of conversions have been reported.

CAUSED SURPRISE

the Second United Presbyterian Church, East Liverpool:

"Dear Friends—After much prayer and deliberation I come to you with the following paper:

"Seven years ago we began together our work. God has spared us as pastor and people for a long time and has blessed our work. During that time almost 240 more names have been added to our roll, about 175 of these by profession of their faith and 40 by baptism. In that time some 20 new homes have been established by our young people, while we have followed almost 70 of our members and acquaintances to their last resting place. You have brought of your children 75 to the altar to present them to the Lord. You have given in that time about $17,000 for the advancement of His cause and kingdom in the world.

"We have had regular preaching services each day for these seven years, with but two or three exceptions, besides one week of preparatory services each quarter, to all of which you have been prompt in attending. At the expiration of this bible number of yours, which stands for completeness, surely your Master looking down upon your work will add His commendation of "Well done." During this time we have become more and more united, until as a family, our joys and interests are largely the same.

"So much for the past. The seven years of my oversight as supply, pastor-elect and pastor, end with today. So also, my work here ends with today. God, I believe, calls me to a new field of labor, telling me that by complying with His call it will be better for you and better for me. In obedience then to His call—for no other reason—presbytery at my request will convene at the First U. P. church, East Liverpool on Tuesday, January 28, at 1 p. m. to consider my resignation as pastor of this church to take effect at once, Dr. Taggart to declare the pulpit vacant next Sabbath forenoon.

"I ask you as my friends to unite with presbytery in granting this request. For the purpose of securing a definite statement from you, I ask that you meet in the church at 7:30 tomorrow evening and that your clerk keep a written record of the meeting that the commissioner, chosen by the congregation to represent you at the presbytery may hand a copy of the same to that clerk.

"J. R. GREENE."

After the paper was read Mr. Greene requested the singing of psalm 23. Some delay in this was occasioned on account of members of the session objecting to the manner in which the resignation was presented. While it is not the desire of the session or the congregation to conflict in any manner with the arrangements made by their pastor, it was thought best to follow the rules of church government. Frank D. White, a member of the session, addressed the congregation to this effect, and while so doing the pastor sat with bowed head. Mr. White asked that the session call a meeting for Wednesday evening one week to consider the resignation. Members of the session present conformed to this, and a call was issued. There will be no meeting of Presbytery until after the congregational meeting, as it is also the desire of the session to pay Mr. Greene in full before he severs his connection with the church.

About two months ago a call was received by Rev. Mr. Greene from the congregation of the U. P. church, at Sharon. Some members of the church and also of the presbytery were consulted, and after much thought on the part of the minister, the Sharon call was accepted. The salary attached to the Second U. P. church is $1,000 a year, and it is understood Sharon pays more.

SILENT DISRESPECT WAS SHOWN

Hostility to Prince of Wales Evident in Attitude of the populace of Berlin.

Berlin, Jan. 27.—Sunday passed without any disrespect being shown to the Prince of Wales, who arrived here Saturday evening to represent King Edward at the celebration of the anniversary of the birth of Emperor William next Monday. German crowds have a too deeply abiding respect for royal personages and are too thoroughly policed to ever fear them. But in a city where the lifting of one's hat is as universal as ordinary civility it was singular to see the passing crowds with never a hat raised and to hear no murmur of applause.

The last experience abroad of the Prince of Wales was his departure, amid thunderous cheers, from the shores of Newfoundland, while the streets through which the prince was obliged to be driven Sunday on his way to visit the British ambassador were without one single British flag. While receiving the most elaborate attentions from the family of Emperor William and from German officials, the Prince of Wales must feel the chilling attitude of the German public. Almost all the newspapers refrain from editorial comment on his visit.

The National Zeitung had a page editorial on the friendship between the United States and Germany.

A POSTMASTER ASSAULTED.

Knocked Down and Badly Beaten in Uniontown, Pa.

Uniontown, Pa., Jan. 27.—A cowardly assault was made on Postmaster Clarence H. Beall, Saturday evening.

William P. Bailey, Jacob Grim, Hudson Huhn and two other men, all from Oliver, were standing in front of the postoffice as the postmaster drove up. As he jumped from his buggy they jumped on him. Beall was knocked down. The crowd then began jumping on him and kicking him in the face. Bystanders rushed to Beall's assistance. The services of a physician were necessary to sew up bad cuts on Beall's head and one big gash across the face.

The trouble dates back to last November's election, when the Republican leaders at the Oliver coke works were accused of selling out their party, their alleged treachery electing S. E. Frock, Democrat, sheriff. Beall was prominent in hunting the men down and was instrumental in having them discharged. F. P. Bailey was yardmaster at the Oliver coke works, Jacob Grim occupied a position with the same company, and the others were also employed at Oliver and lost their positions.

Bailey, Huhn and Grim were arrested and left forfeits, but the other two were not caught.

It was Kendall's turn to the floor, and he did it.

"There are a thousand chances to one," continued Elmendorf, "that if the story she tells you is true she can't prove it. Suppose she was in a store. Who's going to remember her or the time of day? Take her motive, take her admissions to you if they were made in court, combine them with Blair's evidence, and what do you suppose the result would be?"

"You cannot have seen her with Miss Miller," said Kendall, "and still suspect her of this crime."

Elmendorf hesitated, as if he could hardly bring himself to destroy the last refuge.

"There's one way to look at that," he said at last. "Miss MacLane goes to that house wild with rage after her scene with Alden. She has the 'fixed idea' that's more in crime than even you doctors think it is. She gets in without seeing anybody because of the defective catch of the lock. She walks into that room. Miss Miller is on the balcony. Right on the table, where the devil must have put it, is that knife, open perhaps, for the envelope that held that note was cut. Miss MacLane takes that knife, and on the instant Miss Miller comes in through the window, the other girl shrinking back toward the closet. She is behind Miss Miller. She doesn't see her. You know how it would be with the girl entering from the balcony, the bright light behind her. My friend, it's all over in a second, and Brenda MacLane doesn't know what she's done until she comes to this hospital and sees in that bed a creature as different from the woman she supposed she had struck down as God could make."

Kendall's forehead was dripping wet. "But the money?" he gasped.

"Who knows anything about the money?" demanded Elmendorf. "It may have lain out of sight until Neale and his men got there, and one of them may have lifted it. This is not for publication, Dr. Kendall. It's between ourselves."

"It's a nightmare," said Kendall. "I don't believe a word of it."

"If you don't like the way I've put it, let me give you another view," replied the detective. "Miss MacLane goes to the house—heaven knows why, perhaps from curiosity. She goes up the steps and sees through the glass panel of the outer door Alden in the hall. With the door of Miss Miller's room open this would be possible. I've tried it. Seeing Alden, Miss MacLane hurries away. She doesn't know what Alden has just done, but she doesn't want to meet him. Dr. Blair sees her, but does not see Alden, who comes out afterward. This would be natural, for of course Blair's back was turned after he passed the house. Let me tell you that Miss MacLane, when she was questioned, spoke of the chance that the mysterious woman had merely gone up the steps and then come right down again."

The doors below were suddenly flung open, and a man appeared.

"I'd rather take that view of it," said Kendall. "But, even so, you must have a motive."

"Motive!" echoed Elmendorf. "What did Miss MacLane tell you? Didn't she say that Alden told her that Miss Miller gave him no encouragement? Suppose he went up there after writing his letter, which cheerfully assumed that everything was all right, and suppose she told him, once and for all, that she wouldn't have anything to do with him. For her sake he had tempted financial ruin by breaking it off with Brenda MacLane, and now he finds that he's got nothing to pay for it. I'll tell you Alden isn't the man to take that calmly."

"If that's the fact of the case," said Kendall, "how do you explain her silence?"

"My dear sir," replied Elmendorf, "you've got me. I can't. But who can explain a woman anyhow? You believe that Miss Miller is telling the truth, don't you?"

"Did you hear me say so?"

"To Miss MacLane? No. The first thing I heard you say to her was that it was a fine thing that she had done."

"I did say that I believed Miss Miller. That is my present attitude."

"In some respects," said Elmendorf, "it is the worst you could take—for Miss MacLane. By the way, you will permit her to remain with the patient?"

"Why not?" demanded Kendall sternly.

Elmendorf replied with haste that he saw no objection whatever. There was a brief silence, and then Kendall left the room, saying that he would return presently. As he passed the head of the steps leading up from the main entrance of the building the doors below were suddenly flung open, and a man appeared. He seemed to Kendall to come up the steps without touching them. In an instant his hand was on Kendall's arm, and the doctor carried three bruises for a week as the result of it.

Though the two men had a club acquaintance, Alden did not show the slightest trace of recognition.

"Miss Miller?" he said, his voice perfectly steady, ghastly steady, as Kendall afterward described it. "Is she alive?"

"She is," replied the doctor, "and there is no immediate danger."

"I thank you," said Alden. "I was pretty nearly gone. I beg your pardon, how do you do, Dr. Kendall?"

And he extended his hand.

"I understand perfectly," said the doctor. "Miss Miller is conscious, entirely rational and suffering far less pain than you would suppose."

"Who did this?" demanded Alden. "She has told you?"

"She does not know."

"She does not know?" echoed Alden, his head sinking upon his breast.

"I am sorry to say that it will not be wise for you to see her tonight," said Kendall. "We must not subject her to excitement. Please wait here."

And he led the way to the reception room. "I will go to Miss Miller's room and bring you word."

Alden found himself in the presence of Elmendorf, whom he took to be one of the doctors connected with the establishment, which may indicate that there was more in the detective's disguise than he had been willing to admit to Kendall.

"I called to inquire about Miss Miller," said Alden after maintaining silence to what seemed the limit of his power.

"You are Mr. Alden, I take it," was the reply. "Well, you want to cheer up. Miss Miller is doing fine."

"Has she asked for me?"

"Yes," but it was not Elmendorf's voice that replied. "She has asked for you many times."

Alden turned to see Brenda at the door. He stared at her as if she had been a figure raised up by some sudden conjuration.

"Brenda!" he said at last. "I find you everywhere."

"Did not my father tell you I was here?" she asked, and he shook his head.

"I shall remain with Miss Miller until her mother comes," said Brenda. "Dr. Kendall has arranged it."

Alden seemed momentarily to be at a loss for words, but he did not struggle for them or labor visibly with emotion. His manner still remained as it had been throughout—restrained, mechanical.

"You are true blue, Brenda," he said steadily. "You always were."

"I am very glad to be here," she interrupted, speaking softly and leading him aside. "She is an altogether lovable girl, and I am going to be a sister to her," she added, smiling. "Instead of to you, as is customary under the circumstances. I will see that she is not harassed by questions and that she lacks nothing that can possibly be had."

"I cannot see her tonight," said Alden. "Can I send a message?"

"I will take it to her," replied Brenda. "And, by the way, I saw some violets in her room. She likes them especially, does she not? I think Dr. Kendall would let me take in a few from you."

"In five minutes I will have them," said Alden. "You will wait here? It is very kind of you."

He left the room hastily, and Brenda explained his errand. Kendall's manner led her to think that she might have made an error in suggesting the violets, but it was a very different matter that was upon the doctor's mind.

ELECTRICITY IS THE BASIS OF LIFE

By Professor JACQUES LOEB, the Eminent Physiologist of Chicago University

ELECTRICAL charges in the atoms of the bodily tissue are responsible for all the active phenomena of life. In other words, electricity is the basis of life.

A part of the chemical energy of foodstuffs is transformed into electric energy, which gives energy to the body. In one of my experiments I put a jellyfish in contact with a solution of electrically charged substances, and the jellyfish immediately responded by muscular contraction. I then placed the jellyfish in a substance which was a nonconductor of electricity, and there was no response.

In this way I arrived at the conclusion that it was the electric charges which effected the muscular action. I found that a pure salt always acts as a poison to the egg. In order not to have toxic effects it is necessary that the positive and negative charges should easily balance. Whether a salt stimulates or not depends on whether a sodium overbalances. A muscle is stimulated by electro negatively charged particles and prevented from contracting by electro positively charged particles. I have experimented with eggs of different low forms of animal life, with single protoplasmic cells and with muscles.

My results hold true for nerves. My experiments were directed to determine whether electrolytes work in the same way in regard to the life processes of division of cells, muscular contraction and nerve impulses.

I took the eggs of the fundulus and found that these eggs after they have been fertilized will develop in sea water. In a sodium chloride solution I found that they will not develop, but by adding a trace of calcium as many eggs will develop as in the sea water. THIS IS DUE TO THE ELECTRICALLY CHARGED ATOMS OF THE CALCIUM.

Artificial parthenogenesis has been of interest to me only as it led me to learn how the electric charges of ions affect life phenomena. You can bring about parthenogenesis only by positive ions. The power of salt to produce contraction increases with the valency of the ions.

I have come to two conclusions from my study. In the first place, RHYTHMICAL CONTRACTION OCCURS ONLY IN THE PRESENCE OF ELECTRICALLY CHARGED SUBSTANCES. In the second place, the efficiency of the charges depends upon the number of the charges or the different ions. Professor Mathews has arrived at a third conclusion. This is that the negatively charged ions are those which stimulate and the positively charged ions are those which hinder contraction.

He was making an effort to express himself when Elmendorf interrupted him.

"Dr. Kendall is worried," he said, "because he has permitted me to play a trick upon you. To tell the truth, I don't like it any better than he does, and here is where it ends. I am not a doctor. I am a detective sergeant from headquarters. You saw me at the Thirty-eighth street house this afternoon. My name is Elmendorf."

Brenda exhibited surprise, but no resentment, merely saying that the detective's presence was doubtless necessary for reasons unknown to her.

"I am as anxious as any one can be," she said, "to have justice done in this deplorable affair. Do you think you can find out who committed this crime, Mr. Elmendorf? Do you suspect any one?"

"I haven't got any authority to find out anything or suspect anybody," replied Elmendorf, in a tone which indicated that this familiar situation was not agreeable in the present instance. "I go where I am sent and then I make a report. What becomes of the information afterward is a matter with which the sultan of Sulu has more to do than I have. But I'll tell you what I think," he added earnestly. "If this poor girl gets well, that will be the last you'll hear about the case. If she dies, it will all have to come out."

"But you don't think she will die?" cried Brenda, paling.

"I hope not," replied Elmendorf.

"And of course my opinion in that matter is worth even less than it is in the other. But we mustn't take her recovery for granted at this stage of the game. Am I right, Dr. Kendall?"

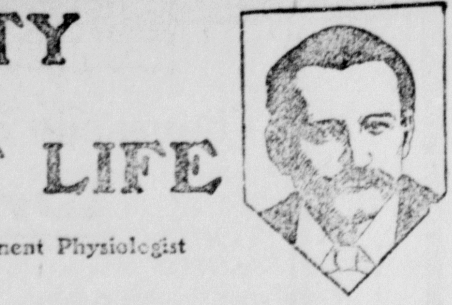

"There can be no certainty yet," replied the doctor gravely.

"Her condition might change for the worse quite suddenly. Isn't that so?" continued Elmendorf. "And if it did she might become unconscious and remain so to the end. That's the fact, and we must face it. This may be murder, and the safe way is to get at the truth now while we can."

"I won't have her questioned any more tonight," said Kendall, with decision. "I've blocked off a coroner already who was here for an ante-mortem statement, and I am prepared for the next corner. Miss Miller shall not be hurried into her grave, and if any attempt of the kind is made I will show a few points of law that will surprise some of our hit and miss officials in this town. A physician's authority beside his patient can be put into practical form if the individual understands the subject. And I do."

"Your advice goes, with me," Elmendorf hastened to say; "but I don't think the particular question I had in mind could do any harm."

"You may state it," said Kendall.

ELECTRICAL charges in the atoms of the bodily tissue are responsible for all the active phenomena of life. In other words, electricity is the basis of life.

My results hold true for nerves. My experiments were directed to determine whether electrolytes work in the same way in regard to the life processes of division of cells, muscular contraction and nerve impulses.

I took the eggs of the fundulus and found that these eggs after they have been fertilized will develop in sea water. In a sodium chloride solution I found that they will not develop, but by adding a trace of calcium as many eggs will develop as in the sea water. THIS IS DUE TO THE ELECTRICALLY CHARGED ATOMS OF THE CALCIUM.

Artificial parthenogenesis has been of interest to me only as it led me to learn how the electric charges of ions affect life phenomena. You can bring about parthenogenesis only by positive ions. The power of salt to produce contraction increases with the valency of the ions.

I have come to two conclusions from my study. In the first place, RHYTHMICAL CONTRACTION OCCURS ONLY IN THE PRESENCE OF ELECTRICALLY CHARGED SUBSTANCES. In the second place, the efficiency of the charges depends upon the number of the charges or the different ions. Professor Mathews has arrived at a third conclusion. This is that the negatively charged ions are those which stimulate and the positively charged ions are those which hinder contraction.

"It was about a picture that I saw in her room," replied the detective, "a photograph of a painting, I should say. I'd like to know where it came from; how she happened to get it. Ugly looking thing it is, and I couldn't help wondering about it."

"You mean the picture of Tantalus," said Brenda. "I saw it. Why do you attach any importance to it?"

"If I should tell you, you'd laugh at me," replied Elmendorf, "so I won't do it just now. But if you should get a good chance to ask the question."

"I have already done so, singularly enough," said Brenda. "She was awake when I returned to the room, and we spoke of some things that she wished to have brought here. She asked for that picture. I must have shown my surprise, for she immediately began to praise the picture, saying how much she admired the facial expression of the tortured king, and she mentioned having bought it at an art store on Twenty-third street a few weeks ago. As a student of facial expression, having her dreams of tragic triumphs some day, the thing might naturally have appealed to her."

"I didn't think about her being an actress," said Elmendorf. "That explains it no doubt. They like those extreme typical faces. I was foolish to imagine that the picture could have had anything to do with this case."

How She Economized.

Husband—Mary, dear, did you buy that book you were telling me about on "how to economize in the kitchen."

Young Wife—Yes, dear, and it is just too lovely for anything! It is full of recipes telling how to utilize cold roast turkey with mushroom sauce and how to make truffle omelets and appetizers and— Why, John, what is the matter?

He staggered to the fireplace. "Give me that cookbook quick, Mary," he gasped hoarsely. "I must either burn it or rob a bank to pay for it!"—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Benefits of the Birch.

The cane should never be used as the ordinary instrument of school punishment. A cane may possibly bring about irreparable damage, and caning on the hands is the most senseless and cruel form of punishment imaginable. The birch is the best implement of punishment for small boys. First, it hurts; secondly, if applied in reason, it does no harm.—London Lancet.

Moffat's Life Pills

The Great Stomach and Liver Medicine.

Established by one of our most Eminent Physicians of New York City and now used in the United States and all foreign countries with more pleasing results than any other medicine ever compounded.

There is hardly a family among civilized nations who have not personal evidence of their beneficial effects. Their great success is owing to their uniform reliability in cases of Constipation, Bilious and Stomachic diseases, whether of long or short duration. They are entirely vegetable in their composition, and harmless to the gentlest infant. One ingredient opens the position, and another is diuretic, and stimulates proper action of the pores of the skin; a third is emollient, loosening phlegm and humor from the kidneys; a fourth is warming and cathartic, and cleanses the stomach and bowels from unhealthy secretions. Their combined effect is, to regulate the impaired functions of the system, and to produce health.

If you feel sick, bad taste in the mouth, coated tongue, dizziness, bilious or sick headache, your stomach and liver are out of order, correct these at once by using Moffat's Life Pills.

They are a positive cure for Malaria, Biliousness, Torpid Liver, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Costiveness, Colds, La Grippe, Aching Limbs, Rheumatism, Impure Blood, Chills and Fever and all other diseases arising from a disordered condition of the stomach and liver.

These pills act on the stomach, bowels, liver and kidneys, purify and regulate the whole system, and are guaranteed to cure and give satisfaction or money refunded.

Ask your Druggist for Moffat's Life Pills and take no other. If he has not got them or will not get them for you, they will be sent by mail on receipt of 25 Cents a Box or 5 boxes for $1.00. Sold by all first class Druggists. Plain or sugar coated.

IMPOR- TANT ASSES

CHILD BY.

They have an assemblage of qualities of their own. They breathe differently, using different muscles; the heart is faster and more easily stimulated; the composition of the body changes from a period below birth, when it contains 97 per cent of water, to adult age, when it contains only 58 per cent; the liver has twice the proportionate size in the child as compared with the adult and has different functions to perform; the brain of the newborn is six times larger in proportion to its body than is that of the adult; the muscles are about half the relative size as found in the adult, but are proportionately larger than the tendons, thus accounting for the greater suppleness of the child; the heart does not increase proportionately with the body, but has its own periods of growth, and so on with the most of the other organs.

Careful measurements of children, which have been made for numbers of years, indicate that the height and weight do not increase regularly, but have certain periods during which the energy of the system is manifested in these directions. The earlier nascent period for accelerated growth in girls is without doubt connected with the earlier approach of puberty on their part. Nature prepares them more quickly for maturity. From the other side this means that boys remain children longer, but are just for this reason larger and better developed physically when once their growth is completed.

A good many facts seem to show that when the favorable period for growth passes without the regular increase it is never regained. If a boy does not grow as he should between 14 and 16, he will never make up for it later on. Boys that have run on the streets and been improperly fed, as with most boys who afterward enter reform schools, although they gain more easily in weight, do not pick up the height which they have lost. Any unusual nervous strain during these periods tends to arrest the rate of growth. Fatigue and worry in school thus interfere with physical development.

Not only do the larger features expressed in height obey the law of nascent periods, but the same is true for the smaller portions of the body. The bones of the skull and face and those of the hands are most conspicuous and significant in this respect. The period of the second dentition is the most important time for the development of the jaw and other face bones and also for later refinements in the modeling of the skull. When growth is arrested in this nascent period, defects of development occur which leave the face permanently stigmatized.

This may take very different forms. All the bones may be smaller than normal, but not disproportionate when compared with each other, or they may all be too large and normal. One side of the face may be larger or smaller or set higher or lower than the other. There may be special defects in special bones. The palate may be too high or too narrow, occasioning an irregularity of the placing of the upper teeth. The upper jaw may be sunken, sometimes causing the lower jaw, which may be of normal size, to protrude, often to such an extent that the teeth do not meet, thus causing difficulty in chewing and in the articulation of words. The lower jaw may be protruding to such an extent as to produce the same results. The cheek bones may be too large, the orbits too wide, the bones of the nose too narrow, thus interfering with breathing and leading to lung disease and catarrh. The forehead may be too bulging and high, arrested in the condition found in babyhood, or it may be too low or narrow. The skull may vary in shape, depending upon the growth of the component bones and the dates of their permanent joinings, without, as far as this is concerned, having any reference to the real shape or structure of the brain which is beneath it.

Both these latter defects, however, as well as the others, do depend upon the health and vitality of the nervous system, of which the brain is the most important organ. Besides "getting educated," the brain controls very largely the nutritive functions of the body. Irregularity and disorder in the periods of growth are dependent to a great extent upon the brain, and physical defects are signs of nervous action which has been incomplete and imperfect, at least during the time when the organ in question was at its critical period of development. The features of the face as well as other portions of the body thus present a history of the times at which the individual has been subjected to strains too great to be overcome by his innate powers of resistance. A great number of such defects lead to the presumption that the individual is also at the present moment less capable of resisting strain, although this may not be in every case correct. It also leads to the presumption that other organs which are not immediately able to be observed—the brain, for example—have more likely suffered in development in such an instance than when very few or no defects of development are apparent. This, however, is only a probability, and there are doubtless individuals presenting numerous physical deficiencies in whom the upper centers of the brain at least remain in themselves unscathed. The lack of balance must nevertheless always have some depreciating effect.

Nascent periods referring to more purely mental events are not wanting even in the lower animals. Spaulding shows that if young chickens, when they clip the shell, are hooded for a couple of weeks, at the end of that time they will have lost the ability to follow the mother as normal chickens time they never learn to use her as a guide and protector, and they consequently wander away and are lost. He also shows that during this period, if chickens are in the presence of any moving animal, they learn to follow it. He had some broods following after various animals; others after himself. In the first case we have an instance of complete atrophy of a function necessary to the normal life of the animal and in the second an instinct which has been perverted or turned from its natural channel. By the lack of proper opportunities for education the chicken has been either wholly or partially debilitated.

In human beings mental nascent periods, although in most cases allowing a wider margin or time of grace, are equally positive in their appearance. The striking point for our present purposes is that there is a well marked nascent period for those intellectual, emotional and ethical susceptibilities which are called into play during religious awakening. Judged by the healthy average of the race, it would not be normal to expect religious feeling of any intensity before the age of 8 or 9, or perhaps even later, while if an individual has passed the age of 22 or 23 without experiencing a religious awakening there is less likelihood that he will ever have such. The doctrines of most churches that there comes a time when the Holy Spirit does not return and the practice of stimulating religious feeling at about the age of puberty by expecting confirmation is thus borne out by the investigations of modern child study. From the scientific standpoint it would seem that even a total unbeliever, if he wished his child to obtain the normal experiences of the race and the advantages of a complete education, would desire his child to pass through this experience, among others, even if at a later stage it might give up its energy to another order of development.

Favorable periods are also to be observed in more abstract operations of the mind. The following experiment was carried out by the present writer on 1,350 children in two Chicago schools: A tally register similar to but smaller than that which is used on street cars for ringing up fares was handed to each child, taken by himself. He soon discovered that "it counted." He was then asked to see how large a number of clicks he could run up in a minute. That this was the object of the experiment was spread throughout the school by the children themselves. The register was always set at some number between 200 and 300. This number was written down in sight of the child on a piece of paper. After working for a minute time was called, the slip of paper and a pencil were pushed over to him, and he was asked pleasantly how many clicks he had made.

The drop in the fifth and sixth grades occurred in both schools tested, although it was less in one school than the other. For the rest, the children went through all the different simple operations. They multiplied, divided and added. Except in the first and second grades, where it was a matter of the size of the figures, the difficulty was intellectual. They could all have subtracted if they had been told to do so. The explanation that in the fourth

WIPING OUT BOERS.

Bishop Coppin Says British Are Gradually Extirminating Them.

GEN. B. VILJOEN CAPTURED.

Kitchener Sent Report That He Had Been Caught—Boers Attacked Party That Had Taken Boer Prisoners. Most of Latter Escaped.

New York, Jan. 27.—The Right Rev. L. J. Coppin, who sailed from this city about a year ago on the Umbria, to take charge of the fourteenth Episcopal diocese of the African Methodist Episcopal church in South Africa, returned here on the same ship. He is from Philadelphia, and was the first bishop sent out by the A. M. E. church to take charge of this diocese, which lies south of the Gambia river, and comprises two conferences, the South African and the Transvaal.

Plenty of Church Work to Do.

"I found plenty of work awaiting me when I got out there," he said. "The two conferences were mapped out, but were not organized, and only a start had been made in their development. We now have between 40 and 50 churches established, with over 100 traveling ministers. We have recently bought a large building in Cape Town, where, in February next, we will open a school to prepare students for a collegiate course. We are also hoping soon to start an industrial and literary school near Bloemfontein, modeled on the same general plan as the school at Tuskegee.

"We are seriously handicapped in and sixth grades they have left the four rules behind is inadequate. Surely all the more advanced operations involve the simple rules.

It may be noted that nothing was ultimately lost by the drop in the fifth and sixth grades. When the seventh and eighth are reached, the ability is greater than ever. It seems quite probable, however, that this ability is not very closely connected with anything they have done in school.

The number of children tested (1,350) is perhaps not enough to make certain of the extent of the arrest, but in as far as it is certain we have revealed a nascent period in the fourth grade for operations of this kind. If there should be any repetition of such problems in ordinary school work it ought to come here, where the mental capacities used are vigorous, and not during the fifth and sixth grades. It would be better to give up such problems altogether then and find out something else which the child would be better able to do. If, on the contrary, we drill up on such work in the fifth and sixth grades, we shall be using organs which are imperfect and easily fatigued, and shall meanwhile be neglecting others which have at this very time their most favorable period.

MRS. RICHARDSON FREED.

Kissed by Brother-in-Law When Acquitted of Killing Husband.

Plattsburg, Mo., Jan. 27.—Mrs. Adie Richardson was Saturday acquitted of the charge of murdering her husband, Frank W. Richardson, a wealthy merchant, who was shot and killed Christmas eve, 1930, as he was entering his home in Savannah, Mo.

The announcement of the verdict was received with frantic enthusiasm and joy, not only by Mrs. Richardson and her own and her husband's relatives, but by all the spectators. John D. Richardson, brother of the dead man, seized the widow around the waist and raised her clear off her chair. Holding her in his arms, he kissed her again and again, while the crowd cheered.

After she was released by her brother-in-law, her venerable father, Adam Lawrence, seized her in his arms and their tears of joy mingled as they embraced each other. All of the relatives and the attorneys for the defense gathered around the father and daughter and with tears of joy embraced or congratulated the latter, and the little Richardson boys were kissed by scores of people.

"The defendant is dismissed," shouted Judge Barnes.

"Thank God! Thank God!" was shouted in all parts of the room.

Mrs. Richardson pressed forward and shook hands with and thanked each member of the jury.

British For Chinese Navy and Japanese For the Army.

Peking, Jan. 27.—Chinese officials have found treasure to the value of over 100,000,000 taels in gold and silver, which was buried in the women's quarters of the palace before the court fled from Peking.

The court has granted 5,000,000 taels annually to Yuan Shi Hai, viceroy of Chi Li, for the maintenance of an army of 100,000 men in Chi Li province.

Yuan Shi Hai has been given practical control of the army and navy of China and proposes engaging the Japanese instructors for the army and British instructors for the navy.

this project by the unsettled condition of the country on account of the war. There seems little hope of the terrible war cloud lifting. You cannot conceive the condition of affairs over there. The Boers are gradually being wiped off the earth. It is no longer war, but a process of slow extermination. England will never listen to any arbitration proposition which means restoration of the republic and the Boers will accept no other settlement. Just as long as they are able to keep up the guerilla method of warfare, they can, notwithstanding the fewness of their numbers, keep thousands of soldiers in the field busy watching them and trying to head them off."

Gen. B. Viljoen Captured by British.

London, Jan. 27.—A report sent by Lord Kitchener from Johannesburg tells of the important capture of General B. Viljoen, in the neighborhood of Lydenburg, Transvaal colony, as well as the captures of small parties of Boers elsewhere.

Pretoria, Jan. 27.—Colonel Wilson captured 20 Boers near Frankfort, in Orange River colony, last Saturday. He was preparing at dawn the next day to move away with his captives, when a superior force of Boers made a desperate effort to recapture the prisoners. A hot fight ensued, in which all but three of the prisoners escaped and in which a few men were killed or wounded on both sides.

AFTER LIBRARIES FOR MEXICO.

Consul General Hanna Trying to Induce Carnegie to Donate $4,000,000.

Monterey, Mexico, Jan. 27.—If the efforts now making by United States Consul General Philip C. Hanna are successful, $4,000,000 of Andrew Carnegie's wealth will be used in the establishment of libraries in Mexico. Of this amount one-fourth is planned to be used in the establishment of a magnificent library in Monterey. The plan contemplates the expenditure of the remaining three millions in the establishment of libraries at Chihuahua, Durango, Tampico, Torreon and San Luis Potosi.

General Hanna has taken up the matter with Mr. Carnegie direct and feels confident of success. He says he expects Mr. Carnegie to be particularly interested in the founding of a library in this city, because of the establishment here of the $10,000,000 steel plant and the consequent importing of skilled workmen from the states. General Hanna expects to hear something in connection with the Carnegie move within the next few days.

It will pay you to see it; it's new.
- $2800—A Queen Ann house, 7 living rooms, finished attic, vestibule, reception hall, laundry, excellent cellar, bath, hot and cold water, electric light and gas throughout. Large front portico; house light and airy. Situated within 7 minutes walk of the Diamond in a good neighborhood and a pleasant place to live.
Will you not look at it?

VACANT LOTS—We have them everywhere, from the Pennsylvania line to the mouth of Yellow Creek; from the river to Calcutta; at prices commensurate with their location, size and conveniences. It matters not what locality, street, addition or allotment; you had better see what we have; get our prices and terms.

OTHER PROPERTIES—We have scores of them at any price, on any street, in any locality. Come in and see us about them; ordinary prudence and business caution should compel you to do this for we can give you price and values of properties in all parts of the city. We know of a lot of misguided folks who ignored the real estate dealer and consequently paid more for their properties than they were listed at in our office. Lots more are doing it every day. WHY CAN WE GIVE YOU A BETTER PRICE? Because we must, and because of our experience and knowledge of value of real estate.

TEST US—If we don't measure up, don't deal with us. There will be no hard feeling on our part. All we ask is to be allowed to consider your wants, quote our prices and show you our properties.

A DOLLAR SAVED IS A DOLLAR EARNED.

HOME AFFAIRS.

Brief Notes of a Personal Nature and of Matters About Town.

Children's Party—Ituth, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chal Peterson, has issued invitations for a birthday party Saturday, Feb. 1.

For Board of Education—Omission was inadvertently made in the call for the Republican primary election of three members of the board of education who are to be nominated at that time.

Went to a Convention—Edwin Oppelt, of this city, and George B. Aten, of Wellsville, left last evening for Milwaukee to attend a convention of the National Association of Retail Grocers.

Want Union Stamp—Coopers' union No. 71 at its last meeting reinstated two members and passed a resolution asking the packers to see to it that the official stamp of the coopers was on all cooperage before the cask was packed. This resolution was forwarded to the packers' local, to be read at the next meeting.

Rummage Sale a Success—The rummage sale in the interest of the hospital is still on, and the ladies report much patronage. They say, however, that with the amount of goods going out, there is abundant space and demand for more, and they desire that the public be prompt in its contributions.

No Holdup Attempted.
Joseph Cannon, who got into a little mixup Friday night with Ed O'Hanlon, denies emphatically that either he or his partners ever thought of holding the young man up. The mayor believes Cannon's story of the affair and so do those who know him best.

A Valuable Publication.
The World Almanac and International Encyclopedia for 1902 has been received. It is one of the handiest and most valuable of the annals, and is indispensable to those who read for the purpose of keeping posted and desire information upon the countless topics touched upon in the daily press. There are few such questions that the World Almanac does not answer.

Asks Release From Bond.
Lisbon, January 27.—(Special)—James R. Sloan has asked to be released from the bond of Flora B. Hutter, of Hanover township, formerly Flora B. Ward, as guardian of Walter R. and Virgil R. Ward. The guardian has been ordered to furnish a new bond within 20 days.

Will positively cure Rheumatism, Paralysis, Nervous Prostration, Lumbago and Kidney Trouble. Treating rooms at 164 Washington street, Mr. J. C. Allison's residence. 2-h

A Flattering Proposition From a Big Congregation in the Nail City.

Rev. J. G. Reinartz, pastor of St. John's Evangelical Lutheran church, has received another very flattering proposition in the shape of a unanimous call from Zion's Evangelical Lutheran church of Wheeling.

Zion church is the largest Lutheran church in Wheeling and one of the largest in the Pittsburgh diocese.

Mr. Reinartz has been in East Liverpool about 16 years and in that time has received no less than eight calls to other pastorates. So far he has declined all offers, and his parishioners are hoping that he will do the same with this one. The reverend gentleman was not prepared today to discuss this phase of the matter.

OFFICERS CHOSEN

By the Congregation of the Christian Church For the Present Year.

A most harmonious congregational meeting was held yesterday morning by the members of the Christian church, at which time officers for the fiscal year were elected as follows: Elder, Bernard Eagan; trustee, George Welsh; treasurer, J. A. Cullom; financial secretary, C. R. Reese; deacons, for two years, H. C. Walters, George Keegan, Frank Oswald, Oscar Allison and C. R. Reese; clerk, M. R. Douglass; chorister, Miss Mary Lloyd; deaconesses, Mrs. W. R. Grafton, Mrs. Lizzie Booth, Miss Emma McKenty and Miss Catherine Morland.

This church is in excellent financial condition, and the membership has been increasing steadily during the past year.

KILLED AT A CROSSING

John Rabel, of Garfield, Met Death at Salem on Saturday Night.

Salem, January 27.—(Special)—John Rabel, of Garfield, was killed at a Ft. Wayne crossing here Saturday evening.

Rabel was about 24 years old. He was driving into town and two trains were passing and it was supposed he was confused. The watchman at the crossing failed to prevent him from being struck by the Cleveland Flyer, which was late and running fast. He lived about 25 minutes. He lived at Garfield with Rev. and Mrs. G. B. Malmesbury, who had reared him from childhood.

Rabel's horse was carried on the pilot for about 200 feet. The coroner held an inquest, but has not announced the verdict.

Councilmen Elected.

At the election which occurred at St. Aloysius' Catholic church yesterday, D. B. McNicol and John Lister were elected as councilmen to serve for a period of two years.

In Memory of James N. Vodrey, Passed By First National Bank Directors.

At a special meeting of the Board of Directors of the First National bank of East Liverpool, O., held January 25, 1902, the following resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, It has been the will of God to take from this world our friend and former member, James N. Vodrey, and one of the original shareholders of this bank;

Resolved, That we feel it our duty to express officially our regard and respect for our late fellow-member, as well as our deep regret at his decease; ever faithful to his official duties, judicious and considerate in all his business relations, and so genial, cheerful and kind in his social characteristics, that we profoundly realize that we have lost not only one of our most esteemed members, but also a personal friend. His high character for integrity, candor and every manly virtue was such as to endear him to all as a companion and friend. We deeply deplore his death and sympathize with his family in their great affliction.

DAVID BOYCE, President.

N. G. MACRUM, Cashier.

A Correction.

I desire to correct the article that appeared in the Crisis Saturday evening with reference to my family saying anything about Floyd Miller. Myself and family have been, and are, in sympathy with Floyd and regret the unfortunate occurrence.

A NEW LOCAL FORMED

Handle Finishers Organize And Elect Officers—Over 50 Applicants.

A union was formed Saturday evening by the handle finishers, which is composed of boys ranging in age from 17 to 19 years. A meeting was held in the turners' and handlers' rooms and was attended by more than 50 applicants for membership.

Elsie Carey presided and officers were elected as follows: President, Elsie Carey; vice president, William Beardmore; recording secretary, Frank Coleman; financial secretary, Anthony Ward; treasurer, Edward Dickey; guard, Archie Stillwell.

A committee was appointed to draw up a constitution and by-laws. Another committee was also appointed to confer with all handle makers and request that they attend another meeting, which will be held by the new union on next Saturday evening.

Delivered Before the Y. M. C. A. By Prof. J. J. Rose Yesterday Afternoon.

Prof. J. J. Rose addressed the men's meeting at the Y. M. C. A. yesterday afternoon on "The Effects of an Ill-spent Life." He gave in effect a history of his own life up to 1895, when he was converted and saved from the drinking habit which had him fast. He drew many practical lessons and closed his address by singing "A Sinner Like Me," which, he said, was his first public testimony in the Danville, Pa., Y. M. C. A. meeting.

Marriage Licenses.

Cory B. Williams, Park, and Mary Hawkins, New Waterford.

John Shower and Mary Skelly, Lisbon.

Wm. F. Taylor and Rena E. Burlingame, Clarkson.

Edward L. Green and Anna J. Martin, East Liverpool.

Druggists' Banquet.

It is likely the retail druggists of this city will give a banquet early next month. The matter has been under discussion since the meeting held Friday afternoon and definite arrangements will be completed soon. The exact date has not been settled.

Attention, Fourth Ward Voters.

Owing to unforeseen circumstances I desire to announce to my friends who have endeavored to induce me to become a candidate for city council from the Fourth ward, that I have decided to decline the honor. I shall use my best endeavors to secure the nomination of Criss McConnell for the position, and would urge my friends to do the same.
